

victor ['vɪktə] n возвыш.

победитель

the victor - а) государство-победитель; б) армия-победительница

victor troops - победоносные войска

victor sword - победоносный меч, меч победы

victor countries - страны-победительницы

to crown smb. victor - увенчать кого-л. лаврами победителя

victor

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

victor [victor victors] BrE ['vɪktə(r)] ^u NAmE ['vɪktə] ^u noun (literary)

the winner of a battle, competition, game, etc.

Word Origin:Middle English: from Anglo-Norman French victo(u)r or Latin victor, from vincere 'conquer'.Example Bank:

- China is looking a likely victor at these championships.
- The French pair fought back to finish two sets to one victors over the Williams sisters.
- The team emerged as clear victors in the competition.
- The team emerged as worthy victors.
- the victor in the contest
- Since history is usually written by the victors, there is usually an untold story.

victor

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

victor /'vɪktə $ -əɪ/ BrE ^u AmE ^u noun [countable] formal[Date: 1300-1400; Language: Latin; Origin: victus, past participle of vincere 'to defeat, win']

the winner of a battle, game, competition etc:

* After the game the victors returned in triumph.

victor

Freakuency Pack

12500 5266^{MCW}15000 8718^{COCA}RANGE: 5k VICTOR ⁶⁸⁸²victor ⁶⁵¹⁰victors ³⁷²

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

2141 6171⁵⁹²⁸ *np1*511 29218⁵⁸² nn1