

contributor

[kən'trɪbjʊtə] n

1. см. contribute + -or
2. жертвователь
3. 1) (постоянный) сотрудник (газеты, журнала и т. п.); автор статей (в журнале, сборнике)
- 2) докладчик (на конференции и т. п.)
4. страх. участник в несении доли убытков (по общей аварии)

contributor

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

con-tribu-tor AW [contributor contributors] BrE [kən'trɪbjətə(r)] ^u NAmE

[kən'trɪbjətə] ^u noun

1. ~ (to sth) a person who writes articles for a magazine or a book, or who talks on a radio or television programme or at a meeting
 - a regular contributor to this magazine
2. ~ (to sth) a person or thing that provides money to help pay for sth, or support sth
 - Older people are important contributors to the economy.
 - the largest net contributor to EU funds
3. ~ (to sth) something that helps to cause sth
 - Sulphur dioxide is a pollutant and a major contributor to acid rain.

Word Origin:

late Middle English: from Anglo-Norman French contributour, from Latin contribut- 'added', from the verb contribuere, from con- 'with' + tribuere 'bestow'.

Example Bank:

- Politicians are often suspected of trying to appease campaign contributors from the oil industry.
- She was a long-time contributor to Time Magazine.
- The core of regular contributors is essential to the magazine.
- net contributors to the economy
- She continues to be a regular contributor to the journal.
- Which country is the largest net contributor to EU funds?

contributor

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

con-trib-u-tor AC /kən'trɪbjətə, kən'trɪbjʊtə $ -ər/ BrE ^u AmE ^u noun [countable]

[Word Family: noun: ↑contribution, ↑contributor; verb: ↑contribute; adjective: ↑contributory]

1. someone who gives money, help, ideas etc to something that a lot of other people are also involved in:
 - ^u campaign contributors
 - contributor to
 - ^u Dr Win was a major contributor to the research.
2. someone who writes a story, song, speech etc that forms part of a larger work such as a newspaper, book, broadcast, recording etc
 - contributor to
 - ^u a regular contributor to 'Time' magazine
3. formal someone or something that helps to cause something to happen
 - contributor to
 - ^u Cars are still one of the principal contributors to air pollution.

contributor

Freakuency Pack

12500 5311^{MCW}
 15000 773^{COCA}
 RANGE: 2k CONTRIBUTE ⁶⁰²⁰¹ contribute 11573
 contributed 11282 contributes 3153
 contributing 6940
 contribution 9591 contributions 12101
 contributor 2844
 contributors 2558
 contributory 139
 noncontributory 20
 COCA 500k Unlemmatized
 2482 10610²⁸³⁷ nn1
 7317517⁷ nnu