

bladder['blædə] n

1. 1) пузырь
- 2) анат. мочевого пузыря (мж. urinary bladder)
bladder stone - камень мочевого пузыря
2. камера
football bladder - футбольная камера
3. 1) пустомеля
- 2) разг. газета

bladder

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

blad-der ['blædə(r)] ^{BrE} ['blædə(r)] ^{AmE} ['blædə(r)] ⁿ noun

1. an organ that is shaped like a bag in which liquid waste (= ↑urine) collects before it is passed out of the body

see also ↑gall bladder

2. a bag made of rubber, leather, etc. that can be filled with air or liquid, such as the one inside a football

Word Origin:Old English blæðre, of Germanic origin; related to Dutch blaar and German Blatter, also to the verb ↑blow.Example Bank:

- He died of bladder cancer.

bladder

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

blad-der /'blædə $ -ər/ ^{BrE} ^{AmE} noun [countable]

[Language: Old English; Origin: blædre]

1. the organ in your body that holds ↑urine (=waste liquid) until it is passed out of your body
 2. a bag of skin, leather, or rubber, for example inside a football, that can be filled with air or liquid
- ⇒ ↑gall bladder

bladder

Frequency Pack

12500 5316^{MCW}15000 6392^{COCA}RANGE: 5k BLADDER 1904

bladder 1713

bladders 191

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1012 14904¹⁷¹³ nn1