

given

1. [ˈɡɪv(ə)n] n КНИЖН.
 нечто данное, исходное, факт
 these are the givens of our times - это то, что присуще нашему времени
 they took it as a given of life - они принимали это как (непреложный) жизненный факт pursuit of happiness is a human given - стремление к счастью - сущность человеческого бытия
 2. [ˈɡɪv(ə)n] a
 1. амер. данный; подаренный
 given name - имя (в отличие от фамилии)
 his given name is Peter - его зовут Питер
 2. predic склонный (к чему-л.); подверженный (чему-л.); предающийся (чему-л.); увлекающийся (чем-л.); приверженный (чему-л.)
 given to drink - пьющий, предающийся пьянству
 he is given to boasting [to (taking) long walks] - он любит прихвастнуть [(совершать) длинные прогулки]
 I'm not given that way myself - у меня самого таких наклонностей нет
 3. установленный, обусловленный
 in a given time - а) через определённое время; б) в течение установленного срока (мж. within a given period)
 at a given time - в определённое время
 you must finish the test at a given time - вы должны закончить контрольную (работу) к определённому времени /сроку/
 4. выполненный, датированный (о документе)
 given under my hand and seal this 17th day of May - мной подписано и скреплено печатью мая 17-го дня
 5. данный, определённый, заданный
 under the given conditions - при данных условиях
 of a given size - установленного размера
 the given radius being 4 ft., find the circumference - (дан) радиус четыре фута, найдите /определите/ длину окружности
3. [ˈɡɪv(ə)n] *p. p. om give*¹ ll
 4. [ˈɡɪv(ə)n] prep
 при наличии; с учётом, принимая во внимание
 given their inexperience, they've done a good job - если учитывать отсутствие у них опыта, они хорошо справились с работой given good will, the proposal could be carried into effect - при наличии доброй воли предложение можно было бы осуществить

given

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

given [given givens] adjective, preposition, noun BrE [ˈɡɪvɪn] ^m NAmE [ˈɡɪvɪn] ^m

adjective usually before noun

1. already arranged
 - They were to meet at a given time and place.
2. that you have stated and are discussing; particular
 - We can find out how much money is spent on food in any given period.

Word Origin:

Middle English: past participle of ↑give.

Idiom: ↑given to to doing something

Derived Word ↑given that preposition

when you consider sth

- Given his age (= considering how old he is), he's remarkably active.
- Given her interest in children, teaching seems the right job for her.

Word Origin:

Middle English: past participle of ↑give.

noun

something that is accepted as true, for example when you are discussing sth, or planning sth

Word Origin:

Middle English: past participle of ↑give.

given

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. given¹ /ˈɡɪvən/ BrE ^m AmE ^m

the past participle of ↑give

II. given² BrE ^m AmE ^m adjective [only before noun]

1. any/a given ... any particular time, situation, amount etc that is being used as an example:

- On any given day in the Houston area, half the hospital beds are empty.
- The rules are to be followed in any given situation.

at any given time/moment

- There are thought to be around 10,000 young homeless Scots in London at any given time.

2. previously arranged SYN specific:

" The wrapping machine was pre-set to wrap a given number of biscuits.

" Candidates will have to give a presentation on a given topic.

" a game in which, at a given signal, everyone has to stand still

3. be given to (doing) something formal to tend to do something, especially something that you should not do:

" He was a quiet man, not usually given to complaining.

4. take something as given to accept that something is true or exists, especially when you are developing an idea or argument:

" The fact that people find change difficult is taken as given.

III. given³ BrE " AmE " preposition

taking something into account SYN considering:

" Given the circumstances, you've done really well.

given that

" Given that the patients have some disabilities, we still try to enable them to be as independent as possible.

IV. given⁴ BrE " AmE " noun [countable]

a basic fact that you accept as being true:

" Sandra will be at least 15 minutes late – that's a given.

" The concept is taken as a given in social studies.

given

12500 5589^{MCW}

15000 94^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k GIVE 418732

give 153393

gave 81202

given 102524

gives 36334

giving 44421

giver 489

givers 369

gimme 0

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

49520 462⁸⁶⁷⁵⁴ vvn

8176 3652¹¹¹⁶⁰ jj

3814 7536⁴⁵⁷⁵ cs21

16 199187¹⁶ nnu

14 214024¹⁴ nn1

5 392207⁵ vvd