

depressed[di'prest] a

- подавленный, угнетённый, унылый
depressed spirits - подавленное настроение to look depressed - выглядеть подавленным
to feel depressed - быть в подавленном настроении
- ослабленный, уменьшенный
- пониженный, сниженный
- вогнутый; сдавленный, сплюснутый depressed arch - вогнутая арка
depressed fracture - мед. вдавленный перелом ◇ depressed areas - районы хронической безработицы (в Англии)
depressed classes - эсоф. «обездоленные» (о «неприкасаемых» в Индии)

depressed

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

depressed AW BrE [di'prest] AmE [di'prest] adjective

- very sad and without hope
• She felt very depressed about the future.
- suffering from the medical condition of ↑depression
- (of a place or an industry) without enough economic activity or jobs for people
• an attempt to bring jobs to depressed areas
- having a lower amount or level than usual
• depressed prices

Thesaurus:depressed [depressed] adj.

• She felt depressed about the future.

gloomy • • demoralized • • glum • • unhappy • • sad • |informal down • |especially written despondent • • dejected •Opp: cheerfuldepressed/gloomy/glum/sad/unhappy/despondent about sthfeel depressed/gloomy/demoralized/sad/unhappy/down/despondent/dejectedget depressed/gloomy/demoralizedExample Bank:

- At the time he was suicidal and clinically depressed.
- I was depressed by our lack of progress.
- It makes me depressed just looking at him.
- She became severely depressed after her mother's death.
- She's terribly depressed about losing her job.
- The shipping trade was badly depressed.
- There is medical evidence to show that he is suicidal and clinically depressed.
- You mustn't let yourself get depressed
- He was really depressed at the thought of going into the office.
- They have made little attempt to bring jobs to economically depressed areas.
- We lapsed into depressed silence.

depressed

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

depressed /di'prest/ BrE AmE adjective[Word Family: adjective: ↑depressed, ↑depressing, ↑depressant, ↑depressive; noun: ↑depression, ↑depressant, ↑depressive; verb: ↑depress; adverb: ↑depressingly]

- very unhappy:
She felt lonely and depressed.
 - depressed about
Don't get depressed about it.
The divorce left him deeply depressed.
I was depressed at the thought of all the hard work ahead.
 - suffering from a medical condition in which you are so unhappy that you cannot live a normal life:
patients who are clinically depressed
- an area, industry etc that is depressed does not have enough economic or business activity:
Britain's depressed housing market
- formal a depressed level or amount is lower than normal:
a depressed appetite
• • •

COLLOCATIONS■ verbs

- feel depressed The boy said he was unhappy at school and felt depressed.
- get/become depressed If you get depressed, talk to someone about it.
- look/sound depressed Is Jo all right? She sounded a bit depressed.

adverbs

- severely/seriously depressed (=very depressed) He became severely depressed after losing his job.
- deeply depressed (=very depressed) I could see that she was deeply depressed.
- slightly/mildly depressed He was exhausted and mildly depressed.
- a bit depressed British English spoken: I felt a bit depressed because I was so short of money.
- clinically depressed technical (=depressed in a way that doctors recognize as an illness) His medical records show that he was suicidal and clinically depressed.

• • •

THESAURUS

very sad

- miserable very sad, especially because you are lonely, cold, ill, or upset – used about people and periods of time: I felt miserable and blamed myself for what had happened. | Her life was miserable. | I had a miserable time at college.
- depressed very sad and without hope for a long time, because things are wrong in your life or because of a medical condition: After his wife left him, he became depressed and refused to talk to anyone.
- heartbroken extremely sad because of something that has happened to someone or something that you care about very much: She was heartbroken when her dog died.
- distressed/distraught very upset because of something bad that has happened, so that you cannot think clearly: She was very distressed when he left her. | The boy's hospital bed was surrounded by distraught relatives.
- devastated [not before noun] extremely sad and shocked, because something very bad has happened: The whole town was devastated by the tragedy.

depressed

Frequency Pack

12500 5700 ^{MCW}

15000 1427 ^{COCA}

RANGE: 2k DEPRESS ²⁹⁵⁶⁶

depress ³⁷⁵

depressed ⁶³²⁶

depresses ¹³⁴

depressing ¹⁸⁸⁰

depression ¹⁷⁶³²

depressions ⁴⁶³

depressive ¹⁴⁴³ depressives ³⁰

depressingly ¹³⁵

antidepressant ⁴⁸⁰

antidepressants ⁶⁶⁸

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

3978 6334 ⁵⁷³⁷ jj

327 39619 ³⁴¹ vvn

241 47143 ²⁴⁸ vvd