

controlled[kən'trəʊld] a

1. управляемый, регулируемый

controlled nuclear reaction - физ. управляемая ядерная реакцияcontrolled mine - воен., мор. обсервационная/управляемая/ мина (взрывающаяся с берега)controlled pollination - бот. принудительное скрещивание; искусственное опыление controlled point = control point controlled crossing - дор. регулируемый переход

2. 1) контролируемый, централизованноуправляемый; плановый controlled economy - плановое хозяйство

2) амер. регулируемый государством; требующий разрешения, лицензии и т. п.; не поступающий в открытую продажу controlled strategic material - стратегические материалы, на экспорт которых требуется лицензия controlled substance - психотропный препарат, требующий санкции для применения

controlled

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

con-trolled [controlled] BrE [kən'trəʊld] ^u NAmE [kən'troʊld] ^u adjective

1. done or arranged in a very careful way

- a controlled explosion
- a controlled environment
- He played very controlled football.

2. limited, or managed by law or by rules

- controlled airspace

3. -controlled (in compounds) managed by a particular group, or in a particular way

- a British-controlled company
- computer-controlled systems

4. remaining calm and not getting angry or upset

- She remained quiet and controlled.

compare ↑uncontrolledExample Bank:

- He spoke in a controlled, even voice.
- He spoke with a hint of tightly controlled anger.
- He was charged with possessing a controlled drug.
- In many countries the production of the drug is illegal or tightly controlled.
- She closed the door behind her in a quiet and controlled manner.
- The procedures are carried out under strictly controlled conditions.
- The server provides secure and controlled access to sensitive data.

controlled

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

con-trolled /kən'trəʊld $ -'troʊld/ BrE ^u AmE ^u adjective[Word Family: adjective: controlling, ↑controllable ≠ ↑uncontrollable, ↑controlled ≠ ↑uncontrolled; noun: ↑control, ↑controller; verb: ↑control; adverb: uncontrollably]

1. deliberately done in a particular way, or made to have particular qualities:

- " a test held under controlled conditions
- " a controlled explosion

2. limited by a law or rule:

- " Access to the site is closely controlled.
- " a police search for controlled drugs (=a drug that is illegal to have without permission from a doctor)

3. calm and not showing emotion, even if you feel angry, afraid etc:

- " a controlled authoritative voice

controlled

Freakuency Pack

12500 5827^{MCW}15000 323^{COCA}RANGE: 1k CONTROL 147731

control 108285

controlled 13022

controller 2273

controllers 1477

controlling 6818

controls 13137

uncontrollable 887

uncontrollably 591

controllable 358

uncontrolled 883

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

5887 5213⁷³²³ vvn

2569 10106³⁰³² vvd
2161 11129²⁶⁵⁹ jj
8 293833⁸ nnu
