

glorious['glɔːriəs] a

1. великолепный, прекрасный, чудесный, восхитительный (тж. урон.)
 glorious day [sunset] - чудесный день [закат] glorious view - великолепный вид glorious music - прекрасная музыка to have a glorious time [holidays] - восхитительно провести время [каникулы] glorious mess /muddle/ - удивительная /страшная/ неразбериха
 the glorious uncertainty (of smth.) - восхитительная неопределённость (чего-л.)
2. знаменитый, славный
 glorious battle - знаменитое сражение glorious victory - славная победа
 to be glorious by smth. - славиться чем-л.
3. шутл. в приподнятом настроении, подвыпивший, навеселе

glorious

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

glori-ous BrE ['glɒriəs] NAmE ['glɔːriəs] adjective

1. (formal) deserving or bringing great fame and success

- a glorious victory
- a glorious chapter in our country's history
- The film looks back at Spain's glorious past.

compare ↑glorious

2. (formal) very beautiful and impressive

Syn: ↑splendid

- a glorious sunset
- Both her daughters have glorious red hair.

3. extremely enjoyable

Syn: ↑wonderful

- a glorious trip to Rome

4. (of weather) hot, with the sun shining

- They had three weeks of glorious sunshine.

Derived Word ↑gloriouslyWord Origin:[glorious gloriously] Middle English: from Old French glorieus, from Latin gloriosus, from gloria 'glory'.Example Bank:

- From the bedrooms there are glorious views of the coast.
- He watched the glorious hair cascade around her.
- The film looks back at Spain's glorious past.
- This is a glorious chapter in our country's history.
- We congratulate you on this glorious victory.
- We sat on the beach and gazed at the glorious sunset.
- the glorious reds and browns of autumn

glorious

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

glori-ous /'glɒriəs/ BrE AmE adjective

1. having or deserving great fame, praise, and honour:

- a truly glorious future
- a glorious victory

2. very beautiful or impressive:

- glorious views of the coast
- a glorious red sky

3. glorious weather is sunny and hot:

- glorious sunshine

REGISTERIn everyday English, people usually say great rather than glorious:

- He's got a great future ahead of him.
- The house has great views.
- The weather's been great.

4. extremely enjoyable SYN wonderful:

- We had a glorious afternoon of sailing.

—gloriously *adverbglorious

Freakuency Pack

12500 5841 MCW15000 2475 COCARANGE: 3k GLORY 12110

glory 6292
glories 493
glorious 3524
gloriously 358
glorify 349
glorifies 110
glorified 602
glorifying 168
glorification 210
glorifications 4

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

3019 9074³⁵²⁴ jj
