

locker

[ˈlɒkə] n

1. см. lock2 II + -er
2. 1) запирающийся шкафчик или ящик (индивидуального пользования в учреждении и т. п.)
- 2) мор. рундук
3. локер (отделение в холодильной установке)

locker paper - пергамент для быстрозамороженных продуктов

◇ laid in the lockers - мёртвые

not a shot in the locker - а) без гроша /без копейки/ (в кармане); б) никаких шансов, никакой надежды

Davy Jones's locker см. Davy Jones

locker

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

lock·er [ˌlɒkə(r)] BrE [ˈlɒkə(r)] AmE [ˈlɒkə] noun

a small cupboard that can be locked, where you can leave your clothes, bags, etc. while you play a sport or go somewhere

Word Origin:

late Middle English: probably related to Flemish loker.

Example Bank:

- I left my things in my locker.

locker

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

lock·er /ˈlɒkə $ ˈlɒkə/ BrE AmE noun [countable]

1. a small cupboard with a lock in a school, sports building, office etc, where you can leave clothes or possessions while you do something

2. American English a very cold room used for storing food in a restaurant or factory:

▪ a meat locker

locker

Freakuency Pack

12500 5858^{MCW}

15000 3871^{COCA}

RANGE: 5k LOCKER 5471

locker 4767

lockers 704

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

2772 7614⁴⁵⁰⁶ nn1

121 49548²²⁷ np1

33 132810³⁴ nnu