

cargo
 ['kɑ:gəʊv] n (pl -oes, -os [-{'kɑ:g}əʊvz])

1) груз

bulk cargo - насыпной или наливной груз
 deck cargo - палубный груз
 general cargo - генеральный/смешанный, сборный/ груз
 homeward/return/ cargo - обратный груз
 inward [outward] cargo - импортный [экспортный] груз
 cargo handling - переработка груза; погрузочно-разгрузочные работы cargo vehicle - а) грузовик; б) грузовое транспортное средство
 cargo boat /ship/ - грузовое /товарное/ судно
 cargo truck - грузовик
 cargo aircraft - грузовой самолёт
 cargo transporter - а) транспортёр для перевозки грузов; б) грузовой контейнер
 cargo parachute /chute/ - воен. грузовой парашют
 to take in cargo - грузить, брать груз
 to carry cargo - перевозить груз
 to discharge cargo - разгружать, выгружать
 to keep the cargo moving - обеспечивать бесперебойное продвижение грузов
 to transfer cargo - перегружать /переваливать/ груз cargo engaged for the vessel - груз, подлежащий перевозке на данном судне

2) спец. карго, полный однородный груз

cargo Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.
cargo [cargo cargoes] BrE ['kɑːgəʊ] AmE ['kɑːrɡoʊ] noun countable, uncountable (pl. cargoes, NAmE also cargos)

the goods carried in a ship or plane

- The tanker began to spill its cargo of oil.
- a cargo ship

Word Origin:

mid 17th cent.: from Spanish cargo, carga, from late Latin carricare, carcare 'to load', from Latin carrus 'wheeled vehicle'.

Thesaurus:

cargo noun C, U

- A tanker has spilt its cargo of oil.

load • shipment • consignment • BrE goods • business freight •

a cargo/load/shipment/consignment of sth

carry (a) cargo/load/goods/freight

send/deliver/receive (a) cargo/load/shipment/consignment/goods

Example Bank:

- The boats discharged their human cargo a little way from the shore.
- The port handles cargo from all over Asia.
- The satellite was stowed in the shuttle's cargo bay for return to Earth.
- The ship stopped to take on a cargo of fruit.
- The terrorists parked the van with its deadly cargo in a dark alleyway.
- a precious cargo of antiques
- dry cargo, such as fruit
- the packaging and transporting of military cargo
- Customs officers are refusing to check cargo flights.
- The authorities confiscated eight trawlers and their cargo.
- The cargo jet exploded a few minutes after take-off.
- The first cargo of rice will arrive within the next few days.
- The ship was carrying a cargo of nuclear waste.
- They intercepted a cargo ship in the South Atlantic.
- a cargo ship/jet

cargo Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)
car go /'kɑːgəʊ/ $ 'kɑːrɡoʊ BrE AmE noun (plural cargos or cargoes) [uncountable and countable]

[Date: 1600-1700; Language: Spanish; Origin: 'load, charge', from cargar 'to load', from Late Latin carricare; ⇨ ↑charge²]

the goods that are being carried in a ship or plane SYN freight

cargo of

- A ship carrying a cargo of oil has run aground.
- a cargo plane

cargo

12500 6184^{MCW}

15000 3888^{COCA}

RANGE: 7k CARGO ⁵¹⁷⁷

cargo ⁵⁰²¹

cargoes ¹⁵⁶

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

²⁷¹² 7050⁵⁰²¹ nn1
