

manage1. ['mænidʒ] n

1. школа верховой езды
2. уст. = manège I 2, 2)
3. искусное обращение с оружием

2. ['mænidʒ] v

1. руководить, управлять; заведовать, стоять во главе to manage a factory - руководить /управлять/ фабрикой to manage a farm - заведовать фермой to manage a household [a business] - вести домашнее хозяйство [дело] to manage one's own affairs - самому вести свои дела
the singer was looking for someone to manage him - певец подыскивал себе импресарио she manages cattle - она ходит за скотиной

2. управлять; уметь обращаться

- to manage a boat - управлять лодкой can you manage the boat without help? - ты справишься с лодкой без помощи /один, одна/?
to manage horses - править лошадьми to know how to manage smb. - знать, как обращаться с кем-л.; иметь подход к кому-л.
she knows how to manage children - она умеет /знает, как/ обращаться с детьми
he is a difficult person to manage - с ним трудно справиться

3. 1) справляться; обходиться

- I think I can manage (it) - мне кажется, я справлюсь (с этим) how did you manage (in my absence)? - как у тебя шли дела (в моё отсутствие)?
I can't manage this work - я с этой работой не справлюсь, эта работа мне не по силам; такая работа мне не по плечу the task could hardly have been managed better - вряд ли эту задачу можно было бы выполнить лучше he managed matters so well that ... - он так хорошо всё устроил, что ...
you will manage on your pension - вы проживёте на свою пенсию

2) суметь (сделать), справиться; ухитриться

- to manage (to do) everything in time - суметь /ухитриться/ сделать всё вовремя to manage to keep one's temper - суметь сохранить спокойствие
I managed to see him - мне удалось повидать его how did you manage to get the tickets? - как тебе удалось достать билеты?, как ты ухитрился достать билеты?
I managed to lose my pen - я умудрился потерять ручку still he managed to catch the train - он ухитрился успеть на поезд

3) разг. съесть

- can you manage another slice? - может быть, съедите ещё кусочек?
can't you manage another sandwich? - неужели вы не осилите ещё один бутерброд?

4. 1) умирять, укрощать

2) выезжать (лошадь)manage

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

man·age [manage manages managed managing] BrE ['mænidʒ] <sup>u</sup> NAmE
['mænidʒ] <sup>u</sup> verb

DO STH DIFFICULT1. transitive, intransitive to succeed in doing sth, especially sth difficult

- ~ sth In spite of his disappointment, he managed a weak smile.
- I don't know exactly how we'll manage it, but we will, somehow.
- Can you manage another piece of cake? (= eat one)
- ~ (to do sth) We managed to get to the airport in time.
- How did you manage to persuade him?
- (humorous) He always manages to say the wrong thing.
- They managed to find a place to stay.
- We couldn't have managed without you.
- 'Need any help?' 'No, thanks. I can manage.'

DEAL WITH PROBLEMS2. intransitive to be able to solve your problems, deal with a difficult situation, etc.Syn: <sup>u</sup>cope

- She's 82 and can't manage on her own any more.
- ~ with/without sb/sth How do you manage without a car?
- I don't know how she manages on her own with four kids.

MONEY/TIME/INFORMATION3. intransitive ~ (on sth) to be able to live without having much money

- He has to manage on less than £100 a week.

4. transitive ~ sth to use money, time, information, etc. in a sensible way

- Don't tell me how to manage my affairs.

- a computer program that helps you manage data efficiently

5. transitive ~ sth to be able to do sth at a particular time

- Let's meet up again— can you manage next week sometime?

BUSINESS/TEAM

6. transitive, intransitive ~ (sth) to control or be in charge of a business, a team, an organization, etc

- to manage a factory/bank/hotel/soccer team
- to manage a department/project
- We need people who are good at managing.

CONTROL

7. transitive ~ sb/sth to keep sb/sth under control; to be able to deal with sb/sth

- It's like trying to manage an unruly child.
- Can you manage that suitcase?

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we /they	manage
	BrE / 'mænɪdʒ/
	NAme / 'mænɪdʒ/
he / she /it	manages
	BrE / 'mænɪdʒɪz/
	NAme / 'mænɪdʒɪz/
past simple, past participle	managed BrE / 'mænɪdʒd/
	NAme / 'mænɪdʒd/
-ing form	managing
	BrE / 'mænɪdʒɪŋ/
	NAme / 'mænɪdʒɪŋ/

Word Origin:

mid 16th cent. (in the sense 'put (a horse) through the paces of the manège'): from Italian maneggiare, based on Latin manus 'hand'.

Thesaurus:

manage verb

1. T, I

- We managed to find a solution.

succeed • • achieve • • reach • • accomplish • |BrE fulfil • |AmE fulfill • |informal pull sth off • • get there • |formal attain • • effect •

manage/succeed in/achieve/accomplish/fulfil a task

manage/achieve/accomplish/pull off a feat

2. I

- It's difficult to manage on such a small income.

cope • • get by • • get on • |especially BrE muddle through • manage/cope/get by/muddle through without sth manage/get by on sth manage/get by/muddle through somehow

Manage or cope? The subject of manage in this meaning is always a person; the subject of cope may be a person, thing or system:

- In heavy rain the system can't cope.

✗ In heavy rain the system can't manage. People often have to manage without a particular thing that they need or usually have, or on a limited amount of money.

3. T

- The program helps you manage data efficiently.

organize • • arrange • manage/organize/arrange sth in a particular way manage/organize/arrange information/data/things

manage/organize/arrange your affairs

4. T, I

- Who is going to manage the new project?

run • • control • • be in charge • • be responsible for sb/sth • • administer • • direct •

manage/run/control a/an company/business/organization manage/run/control/be in charge of/be responsible for/administer/direct a project

manage/run/be responsible/administer a service

Manage or run? Managing a business, department, etc. means making decisions about how it should operate and organizing other employees. Run emphasizes organizing the necessary tasks.

5. T

- It's a book about how to manage stress.

control • • handle •

manage/control a child

be easy/difficult to manage/control/handle

Grammar Point:

can / could / be able to / manage

Can is used to say that somebody knows how to do something: ▪ Can you play the piano? It is also used with verbs of seeing, noticing, etc.: ▪ I can hear someone calling, and with passive infinitives: ▪ The DVD can be rented from your local store.

Can or be able to are used to say that something is possible or that somebody has the opportunity to do something: ▪ Can you/are you able to come on Saturday?

You use be able to to form the future and perfect tenses and the infinitive: ▪ You'll be able to get a taxi outside the station. ◊ ▪ I haven't been able to get much work done today. ◊ ▪ She'd love to be able to play the piano.

Could is used to talk about what someone was generally able to do in the past: ▪ Our daughter could walk when she was nine months old.

You use was/were able to or manage (but not could) when you are saying that something was possible on a particular occasion in the past: ▪ I was able to/managed to find some useful books in the library. ◊ I could find some useful books in the library. In negative sentences, could not can also be used: ▪ We weren't able to/didn't manage to/couldn't get there in time. Could is also used with this meaning with verbs of seeing, noticing, understanding, etc.: ▪ I could see there was something wrong.

Could have is used when you are saying that it was possible for somebody to do something in the past but they did not try: ▪ I could have won the game but decided to let her win.

Example Bank:

- Can you manage?
- He easily managed to disarm his attacker.
- He skilfully/skillfully managed to keep the aircraft on the runway.
- I can manage perfectly well on my own, thank you.
- I can manage without a dishwasher.
- I don't know how they manage on only £100 a week.
- Paul barely managed to stifle a chuckle.
- She was finding it difficult to manage financially.
- The children were very difficult to manage.
- The condition can be easily managed by simple dietary adjustments.
- We will actively manage your portfolio to maximize the return on your investment.
- We'll just have to manage somehow.
- You need to learn how to manage your time effectively.
- an exchange rate system that will be tightly managed by the central bank
- He has no experience of managing a football team.
- I don't know how she manages on her own with four kids.
- I don't know exactly how we'll manage it, but we will, somehow.
- I really liked the chapter about how to manage stress.
- It won't be easy, but I'm sure we'll manage somehow.
- It's like trying to manage an unruly child.
- It's a computer program that helps you to manage data efficiently.
- Many find it difficult to manage on their weekly income.
- Organizers are looking for someone to manage the project.
- The hotel is run/managed by two brothers.
- The units in some areas are poorly maintained and badly managed.
- They have learnt to successfully manage their diabetes.
- We need a new approach to managing our hospitals.

manage

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

man age S1 W1 /'mænidʒ/ BrE <sup>m</sup> AmE <sup>m</sup> verb

[Word Family: noun: ↑management, ↑manager, ↑manageability, ↑manageress; adjective: ↑manageable ≠ ↑unmanageable, ↑managerial; verb: ↑manage]

[Date: 1500-1600; Language: Italian; Origin: maneggiare, from mano 'hand', from Latin manus]

1. BUSINESS [transitive] to direct or control a business or department and the people, equipment, and money involved in it:

- He was asked to manage a new department.
- Managing a football team is harder than you think.
- The company had been very badly managed.
- a brewery which has been owned and managed by the same family for over 100 years

2. DO SOMETHING DIFFICULT [intransitive and transitive] to succeed in doing something difficult, especially after trying very hard
manage to do something

- I finally managed to push the huge animal away.
- How do you manage to stay so slim?
- We somehow managed to persuade him.
- Juventus managed two goals in the last ten minutes.
- I don't know how I'll manage it, but I'll be there.

REGISTER

In written English, people often use succeed in doing something rather than manage to do something, as it sounds more formal:
▪ At a time of depression, Roosevelt succeeded in restoring hope.

3. DEAL WITH PROBLEMS [intransitive] to succeed in dealing with problems, living in a difficult situation etc:

- I don't know how she manages with seven children.

We didn't have the proper equipment, but we managed somehow.

manage without

" How do you manage without a washing machine?

manage with

" I can't afford to get you a new coat – you'll have to manage with the one you've got.

4. TIME/MONEY ETC [transitive] to use your time, money etc sensibly, without wasting it:

" Paying a little each month can help you manage your money.

" You need to learn to manage your time more effectively.

" Consultants can help academic institutions to manage their resources more efficiently.

5. LIVE WITHOUT MUCH MONEY [intransitive] to succeed in buying the things that you need in order to live even though you do not have very much money SYN get by:

" I honestly don't know how we'll manage now Keith's lost his job.

" It'll be tight, but I guess I'll just about manage.

manage on

" People like Jim have to manage on as little as $75 a week.

6. NOT NEED HELP [intransitive and transitive] spoken to be able to do something or carry something without help:

" Can you manage all right, Mum?

" You'll never manage that suitcase; let me take it.

" Thank you, but I think I can manage perfectly well on my own.

7. KEEP TIDY [transitive] especially British English to succeed in keeping something neat and tidy:

" He'll never manage such a big garden on his own.

8. CONTROL [transitive] to control the behaviour of a person or animal, so that they do what you want:

" It's hard to manage your children and do the shopping.

" The horse was huge and vicious. Giles was the only one who could manage her.

9. BE STRONG ENOUGH [transitive] to be able to do something because you are strong enough or healthy enough:

" He tried to walk, but managed only a few shaky steps.

10. EAT/DRINK [transitive] to be able to eat or drink something:

" Could you manage another drink?

11. CAUSE PROBLEMS [transitive] to do something that causes problems – used humorously

manage to do something

" Andrews has managed to get himself sacked.

" I don't know how I managed to arrive so late.

12. manage a few words/a smile etc to make yourself say or do something when you do not really want to:

" Tom looked tired but still managed a smile.

manage to smile/speak/laugh etc

" 'Why do you hate me so much?' he managed to say.

13. HAVE TIME FOR [transitive] to be able to meet someone or do something, even though you are busy:

" Can you manage dinner tonight?

" 'Is there any chance you could work late?' 'I think I could manage an hour.'

manage

Freakuency Pack

12500 657<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 317<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 1k MANAGE 148461

manage 13259

managing 10057

manages 3895

managers 14873

manager 33399

manageress 0

manageresses 0

managed 22859

management 47030

managements 124

mismanage 25

mismanaged 273

mismanages 4

mismanaging 55

mismanagement 902

manageable 1381

unmanageable 325

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

7987 4016<sup>10035</sup> vvi

2912 9676<sup>3219</sup> vvO

5 387307<sup>5</sup> nnu