

pip

I [pɪp] n (обыкн. the pip)

1. типун (болезнь птиц)
2. 1) шутл. хвороба
2) разг. плохое настроение; хандра
to have the pip - хандрить
to give smb. the pip - расстраивать, раздражать кого-л.; нагонять тоску на кого-л.
to get the pip - раздражаться
his stupidity gives me the pip - его тупость просто убивает меня
3. сл. сифилис

II

[pɪp] n

1. очко (в картах, домино)
pip cards - нефигурные карты
a pip out - а) перебор (в очко); б) разг. навеселе, под мухой
2. разг. звёздочка (на погонах)
to be senior by one pip - иметь на одну звёздочку больше, быть чином старше
3. отдельный сегмент (на кожуре ананаса)
4. бот. корнеклубень
5. сердцевина, пестик искусственного цветка
6. тех. точка; эхо, отражённый импульс (на экране)

II

1. [pɪp] n

1. бот. семечко; зёрнышко; косточка (плодов)
pip fruits - бот. семечковые плоды
2. амер. разг. что-л. замечательное «первый сорт»
it's a pip - замечательная штука
she is a pip! - она такая красotka!, она девица что надо!

2. [pɪp] a

отличный; замечательный; привлекательный

IV

1. [pɪp] n

высокий короткий (звуковой) сигнал, «бип»

2. [pɪp] v

1. пищать, чирикать
2. разбить свою скорлупу, вылупиться (из яйца)
the chick ripped - цыплёнок вылупился из яйца

V

[pɪp] n радио проф.

название буквы P у связистов

pip emma - пополудни

VI

[pɪp] v разг.

1. 1) подстрелить, ранить; подбить
2) застрелить
2. 1) разбить, победить
to be ripped on /at/ the post - спорт. потерпеть неудачу в последнюю минуту
- 2) провалить, заблокировать (на выборах)
- 3) провалить (на экзамене)
he was ripped - его провалили
3. забраковать
I was ripped for active service - меня признали негодным для действительной службы

VII

[pɪp] n

пик, импульс отметки (на ленте записи, экране и т. п.) [см. тж. pip2 6]

pip

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

pip [pɪp pɪps pɪpɪd pɪpɪŋ] noun, verb BrE [pɪp] [ⓘ] NAmE [pɪp] [ⓘ]

noun

1. (especially BrE) (NAmE usually seed) the small hard seed that is found in some types of fruit
• an apple/orange pip
2. the pips plural (old-fashioned, BrE) a series of short high sounds, especially those used when giving the exact time on the radio
• The news will follow the pips at six o'clock.
3. (NAmE) one of the dots showing the value on ↑dice and dominoes; one of the marks showing the value and ↑suit of a ↑playing card

Word Origin:

n. sense 1 late 18th cent. pippin

n. sense 2 early 20th cent.

- n. sense 3 late 16th cent. peep
- v. late 19th cent. ↑pip

Example Bank:

- orange pips

verb (-pp-) ~ sb (BrE, informal)

to beat sb in a race, competition, etc. by only a small amount or at the last moment

- She pipped her rival for the gold medal.
- He was pped at/to the post for the top award.

Verb forms:

| verb forms | |
|------------------------------|--------------|
| present simple | |
| I / you / we / they | pip |
| | BrE /pɪp/ |
| | NAme /pɪp/ |
| he / she / it | pips |
| | BrE /pɪps/ |
| | NAme /pɪps/ |
| past simple, past participle | pped |
| | BrE /pɪpt/ |
| | NAme /pɪpt/ |
| -ing form | pping |
| | BrE /pɪpɪŋ/ |
| | NAme /pɪpɪŋ/ |

Word Origin:

- n. sense 1 late 18th cent. pippin
- n. sense 2 early 20th cent.
- n. sense 3 late 16th cent. peep
- v. late 19th cent. ↑pip

See also: ↑seed

pip

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. pip¹ /pɪp/ BrE " AmE " noun [countable] British English

[Sense 1: Date: 1700-1800; Origin: pippin]

[Sense 2: Date: 1900-2000; Origin: From the sound]

[Sense 3: Date: 1900-2000; Origin: pip ' mark on a playing card showing its value]

1. a small seed from a fruit such as an apple or orange:

" an apple pip

" Have these oranges got pips in?

2. a high note that is part of a series of short sounds, used for example on the radio to show the time, or on a public telephone line to show that your money has almost finished SYN beep American English:

" The pips are going so I'd better say goodbye.

3. old-fashioned one of the stars on the shoulders of the coats of army officers that shows their rank

II. pip² BrE " AmE " verb (past tense and past participle pped, present participle pping) [transitive] British English informal

1. pip somebody at the post to beat someone at the last moment in a race, competition etc, when they were expecting to win:

" The McLaren team were narrowly pipped at the post by Ferrari.

2. to beat someone in a race, competition etc, by only a small amount

pip somebody to/for something

" Jackson just pipped him for the gold.

pip

Freakuency Pack

12500 6627^{MCW}

15000 14095^{COCA}

RANGE: 6k PIP ⁶⁶²

pip ⁴⁷⁴

pips ¹²³

pipette ⁴⁰

pipettes ²⁵

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

⁶³ 38203³⁶⁵ np1

⁴⁷ 75638¹⁰¹ nn1

⁴ 451865⁴ vv0

² 482161⁴ vvi