

exterior1. [ɪk'stɪ(ə)rɪə] n

1. внешность, наружность; внешний, наружный вид nice [engaging, rough] exterior - приятная [привлекательная грубая] внешность house with an imposing exterior - дом с внушительным фасадом

2. экстерьер (животного)3. pl

- 1) внешнее, несущественное, кажущееся
 2) внешние обстоятельства
 4. театр. декорация, изображающая (открытый) пейзаж
 5. спец. внешняя часть, внешняя область

2. [ɪk'stɪ(ə)rɪə] a1. 1) внешний, наружный

- exterior quietness - внешнее спокойствие exterior angle - мат. внешний угол exterior guard - воен. наружный караул exterior unit - амер. воен. фланговая часть exterior ballistics - воен. внешняя баллистика
 the exterior side [surface] - наружная сторона [поверхность]
 the exterior features of a building - наружный вид здания
 nor the exterior nor the inward man resembles what it was (Shakespeare) - так неузнаваем он внутренне и внешне

2) кино натурный

- exterior shooting - натурная съёмка, съёмка на открытом воздухе
 exterior shot - кадр, снятый на натуре

2. посторонний, сторонний

- without exterior help - без помощи со стороны без посторонней помощи motives exterior to the real issue - мотивы, не имеющие отношения к существу вопроса

3. чужеземный, иностранный, зарубежный

- exterior policy - внешняя политика

exterior

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

ex·ter·ior [exterior exteriors] noun, adjective BrE [ɪk'stɪəriə(r)]¹ NAmE

[ɪk'stɪriə]

noun

1. countable the outside of sth, especially a building

- The exterior of the house needs painting.

Opp: ↑interior2. singular the way that sb appears or behaves, especially when this is very different from their real feelings or character

- Beneath his confident exterior, he was desperately nervous.

Word Origin:early 16th cent.: from Latin, comparative of exter 'outer'.Example Bank:

- Beneath her charming exterior lies a very determined woman.
- Her calm exterior hides very passionate feelings.
- Hidden behind a plain exterior is a wonderful hotel.
- His bluff exterior belied a connoisseur of antiques.
- There is an abundance of fine sculpture, both on the exterior and inside.
- the exterior of the building

adjective usually before noun

on the outside of sth; done or happening outdoors

• exterior walls/surfaces

- The filming of the exterior scenes was done on the moors.
- The exterior lights of the house came on as I approached the door.

Opp: ↑interiorWord Origin:early 16th cent.: from Latin, comparative of exter 'outer'.exterior

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

1. ex te ri or¹ /ɪk'stɪəriə $ -'tɪriər/ BrE¹ AmE¹ noun [countable]1. [usually singular] the outside of something, especially a building OPP interior*exterior of

- the exterior of the factory
- The dome is tiled on the exterior.

2. calm/cool etc exterior behaviour that seems calm, unfriendly etc but which often hides a different feeling or attitude:

Beneath that calm exterior, he has a fierce will to win.

II. exterior ² BrE ² AmE ² adjective [usually before noun]

[Date: 1500-1600; Language: Latin; Origin: 'more outward', from exter; ⇒ †external]

1. on the outside of something OPP interior:

" The exterior walls need a new coat of paint.

2. exterior scenes in a film are filmed outdoors

3. coming from or relating to facts, situations etc other than the one you are considering:

" information that is exterior to the text itself

exterior

Freakuency Pack

12500 6695^{MCW}

15000 4710^{COCA}

RANGE: 6k EXTERIOR³⁵⁴⁷

exterior ³³⁴⁹

exteriors ¹⁹⁸

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1442 14829¹⁷²⁸ nn1

1109 15471¹⁶²¹ jj
