

mystical['mɪstɪk(ə)] = mystic II

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

mysticalmys-tic-al [mystical mystically] BrE ['mɪstɪkəl] ¹ NAmE ['mɪstɪkəl] ² (also less frequent mys-tic BrE ['mɪstɪk] ³ ; NAmE ['mɪstɪk] ⁴) adjective*1. having spiritual powers or qualities that are difficult to understand or to explain• mystical forces/powers

• mystic beauty

• Watching the sun rise over the mountain was an almost mystical experience.

2. connected with ↑mysticism

• the mystical life

Derived Word ↑mysticallySee also: ↑mysticExample Bank:

• a profoundly mystical experience

• She had a certain mystical beauty.

• Wise men thought that mystical forces regulated the activities of the brain.

mystical

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

mys-tic-al /'mɪstɪkəl/ BrE ¹ AmE ² (also mystic) adjective [usually before noun]1. involving religious, ↑spiritual, or magical powers that people cannot understand:¹ music's spiritual and mystical powers2. relating to mysticism:² a mystic ritual—mystically /-kli/ adverb*mystical

Frequency Pack

12500 6790^{MCW}15000 4399^{COCA}RANGE: 6k MYSTIC 4244

mystic 1106

mystical 2136

mystically 72

mystics 346

mysticism 584

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1352 12910²¹³⁶ jj