

dignified[ˈdɪgnɪfaɪd] a

1. обладающий чувством собственного достоинства; величественный, горделивый
to have dignified manners - держаться с достоинством
to assume a dignified air - напустить на себя важность
2. возвышенный

dignified

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

dig·ni·fied [ˈdɪgnɪfaɪd] BrE [ˈdɪgnɪfaɪd] AmE [ˈdɪgnɪfaɪd] adjective

calm and serious and deserving respect

- a dignified person/manner/voice
- Throughout his trial he maintained a dignified silence.

Opp: ↑undignifiedExample Bank:

- She tried to look as dignified as possible in the circumstances.
- They left quietly in an orderly and dignified manner.

dignified

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

dig·ni·fied /ˈdɪgnəfaɪd, ˈdɪgnɪfaɪd/ BrE AmE adjective

behaving in a calm and serious way, even in a difficult situation, which makes people respect you:

- a dignified old lady
- She made a dignified departure.

dignified

Freakuency Pack

12500 6841 *MCW*15000 6673 *COCA*RANGE: 6k DIGNIFY 1753

dignify 139

dignifies 12

dignifying 37

dignified 1372

undignified 193

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1229 17256 <sup>1372</sup> jj