

distinctly[dis'tɪŋ(k)tli] adv

1. 1) отчётливо ясно

distinctly audible - ясно слышный

to speak distinctly - говорить внятно

2) ясно, недвусмысленно

to promise distinctly - недвусмысленно пообещать

it must be distinctly understood - следует раз и навсегда понять it was distinctly said that - было совершенно ясно сказано, что

2. разг. определённо, заметно, несомненно distinctly better - значительно лучше

a distinctly revolutionary paper - откровенно революционная газета

distinctly

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

dis-tinct-ly BrE [dɪ'stɪŋktli] ^u ; NAmE [dɪ'stɪŋktli] ^u adverb

• I distinctly heard someone calling me.

• a distinctly Australian accent

• He could remember everything very distinctly.

Main entry: †distinct ^u *deriveddistinctly

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En) dis-tinct-ly AC /dɪ'stɪŋktli/ BrE ^u AmE ^u adverb[Word Family: noun: †distinction; adverb: †distinctly ≠ †indistinctly; adjective: †distinct ≠ †indistinct]1. clearly OPP indistinctly:

" Speak clearly and distinctly.

" He distinctly remembered the day his father left.

2. very:

" Paul was left feeling distinctly foolish.distinctly uncomfortable/uneasy/unhappy etc

3. used to say that something has a particular quality or character that is easy to recognize:

" dishes with a distinctly Jewish flavor

distinctly

Freakuency Pack

12500 6972^{MCW}15000 1365^{COCA}RANGE: 2k DISTINCT³¹³⁵⁵

distinct 10107

distinction 8973

distinctions 2833

distinctive 5611

distinctively 510

distinctly 2243

indistinct 612

indistinctly 37

distinctiveness 429

distinctivenesses 0

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1989 12520²²⁴³ rr