

install

[ɪn'stɔ:l] v

- официальноноводить в должность
to install smb. in an office - ввести кого-л. в должность to install a professor [a judge, a college president] - официальноноводить в должность профессора [судью, ректора колледжа]
to install a priest [a bishop] - поставить в священники [в епископы]
- устанавливать, помещать, водворять
to install smb. comfortably by /at/ the fireside - удобно устроить /усадить/ кого-л. у камина to be comfortably installed in one's new home - удобно устроиться в новом доме
we installed ourselves in the balcony - мы расположились на балконе
- mex. устанавливать, монтировать, собирать
to install a heating system - смонтировать отопительную систему to install a lighting system - провести осветительную сеть

install

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

in·stall [install installs installed installing] BrE [ɪn'stɔ:l] ^o NAmE [ɪn'stɔ:l] ^o

verb

- ~ sth to fix equipment or furniture into position so that it can be used
• He's getting a phone installed tomorrow.
• The hotel chain has recently installed a new booking system.
- ~ sth to put a new program into a computer
• I'll need some help installing the software.
- ~ sb (as sth) to put sb in a new position of authority, often with an official ceremony
• He was installed as President last May.
- ~ sb/yourself (+ adv./prep.) to make sb/yourself comfortable in a particular place or position
• We installed ourselves in the front row.

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	install
	BrE /ɪn'stɔ:l/
	NAmE /ɪn'stɔ:l/
he / she / it	installs
	BrE /ɪn'stɔ:lz/
	NAmE /ɪn'stɔ:lz/
past simple, past participle	installed
	BrE /ɪn'stɔ:lɪd/
	NAmE /ɪn'stɔ:lɪd/
-ing form	installing
	BrE /ɪn'stɔ:lɪŋ/
	NAmE /ɪn'stɔ:lɪŋ/

Word Origin:

late Middle English (in sense 2): from medieval Latin installare, from in- 'into' + stallum 'place, stall'. Sense 1 dates from the mid 19th cent.

Example Bank:

- A professionally installed alarm will cost from about £500.
- An anti-theft device is installed in the vehicle.
- He was recently installed as president of the National Medical Association.
- Linux can be installed on most PCs or Macs.
- Make sure the equipment is properly installed.
- She saw her guests safely installed in their rooms and then went downstairs.
- The loft ladder is easily installed.
- The switches are cheap to buy and easy to install.
- They estimate that four out of five child car seats are installed improperly.
- Water softening units can be permanently installed into the plumbing system.
- a recently installed swimming pool

install

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

in·stall W3 /ɪn'stɔ:l/$-'stɔ:l/ BrE ^o AmE ^o verb [transitive]

[Date: 1400-1500; Language: Old French; Origin: installer, from Medieval Latin, from stallum 'stall']

- to put a piece of equipment somewhere and connect it so that it is ready to be used:
" They've installed the new computer network at last.
" Security cameras have been installed in the city centre.
- to add new software to a computer so that it is ready to be used OPP uninstall:
" We've installed new anti-virus software.
- formal to put someone in an important job or position, especially with a ceremony:
" Churchill was installed as Chancellor of the university.
- install yourself in/at etc to settle somewhere as if you are going to stay for a long time

• • •

THESAURUS

- install to put a piece of equipment somewhere and connect it so that it is ready to be used: The company is installing a new computer system. | How much does it cost to install central heating?
- put in to install something. Put in is more common in everyday English than install and is used especially about things that are not very complicated to install: The workmen are coming to put the new windows in today. | They removed the bath and put in a shower instead.
- fit to put a new part or piece of equipment into or onto something: I had to fit new locks after the burglary. | All vehicles must have seatbelts fitted.
- lay to put cables or a carpet in the correct place on the ground: Work on laying the telephone cables has not yet begun. | Two workmen were laying carpet tiles in the kitchen.

install

Freakuency Pack

12500 7013^{MCW}

15000 1817^{COCA}

RANGE: 3k INSTALL ²⁰⁹⁵⁹

install 4558

installation 4493

installations 1735

installed 7408

installing 2198

installs 236

installer 168

installers 163

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

2340 10047³⁰⁵⁸ vvi

945 16291¹⁵⁰⁰ vv0