

enter1. ['entə] *n*1. театр. выход (на сцену)2. редк. вход2. ['entə] *v*1. входить

to enter a room [a city] - войти в комнату [вступить в город] to enter a house at the front [back] door - войти в дом с парадного подъезда [с чёрного хода]

we were surprised to see a stranger enter - мы удивились, увидев вошедшего незнакомца enter Hamlet - входит Гамлет (ремарка в пьесе) to enter into a forest - войти в лес

the idea never entered my head - эта мысль никогда не приходила мне в голову

2. (часто into) вступать, входить to enter a battle [a war, a new era] - вступить в бой [в войну, в новую эру]

to enter the curve - спорт. входить в поворот to enter into high society - попасть /проникнуть/ в высшее общество to enter into negotiations [into a debate] - вступать в переговоры [в спор]

to enter into a treaty - заключать договор to enter into obligations - принимать на себя обязательства to enter into correspondence [conversation] - вступить в переписку [разговор] to enter into partnership [alliance] with ... - стать, чьим-л. партнёром [союзником]

to enter upon an inheritance - вступить во владение наследством

3. 1) вонзать, втыкать

to enter a wedge into a log - вбить клин в бревно

2) вонзаться, проникать

the thorn entered the flesh - шип вонзился в тело

the bullet entered the heart - пуля попала /проникла/ в сердце

4. 1) поступать, вступать; становиться членом to enter the army [a school, the legal profession, parliament] - вступать в армию [поступать в школу, стать юристом, членом парламента] to enter Catholicism - принять католичество

2) быть частью, входить в состав

water enters into the composition of all organisms - вода входит в состав всех организмов

5. 1) (часто in, into) вписывать, вносить, заносить (в списки); регистрировать to enter a date - вписать дату to enter a word in a dictionary - включить слово в словарь to enter a name in the list - зарегистрировать кого-л.; внести чью-л. фамилию в список to enter the names of qualified voters - составлять списки избирателей to enter a sum against smb.'s account - внести деньги на чей-л. счёт

2) записывать (куда-л.)to enter a boy in a college - записать мальчика в школу /в лицей и т. п. / to enter smb. at a school - подать заявление о приёме кого-л. в школу to enter a horse for a race - записать /зарегистрировать/ лошадь для участия в скачках

6. принимать участие, участвовать to enter a short story contest - участвовать в конкурсе на лучший рассказ to enter a race - выступать /участвовать/ в гонках to enter for a contest as a singer - участвовать в конкурсе вокалистов to enter the competition /the event/ - выступать в соревновании, участвовать в состязании

7. (on, upon) начинать, приступать

to enter upon a career - начать профессиональную деятельность to enter on a project - приступить к выполнению проекта, взяться за осуществление проекта to be entering a new phase - вступать в новую стадию to enter on a new stage of development - вступить в новую фазу развития

he entered upon his duties at the Ministry - он приступил к исполнению своих обязанностей в министерстве

he entered upon the task with insufficient preparation - он взялся за выполнение задания без достаточной подготовки mankind is entering upon a new era - человечество вступает в новую эру

he is entering on his 30th year - ему пошёл тридцатый год

8. (into)1) разделять (чувства и т. п.), сочувствовать to enter into smb.'s ideas [feelings] - разделять чьи-л. мысли [чувства]

2) вникать; вдаваться

to enter into internal motives - вдумываться во внутренние мотивы, анализировать внутренние побуждения to enter into details - вникать /вдаваться/ в подробности

this need not be entered into - на этом останавливаться не обязательно

the illustrator must enter into the spirit of the text - художник-иллюстратор должен проникнуться духом иллюстрируемого текста

9. ком. поступать (куда-л.)

entered for consumption - поступило на внутреннее потребление entered for warehouse - поступило на таможенные склады

10. юр.

1) начинать процесс; вступать в процесс путём подачи письменного заявления to enter an action against smb. - возбуждать дело против кого-л.

2) заявить (письменно); представить, подать, приобщить к делу (документ) to enter a protest - заявить протест to enter a writ - представить предписание to enter a caveat - подавать заявление или ходатайство; сделать письменное предупреждение

11. амер. юр.

1) регистрировать заявку (на земельный участок)

2) регистрировать авторское право, патент entered according to act of Congress - зарегистрировано в соответствии с актом конгресса

12. эк. подавать таможенную декларацию to enter a ship at the custom-house - подавать в таможенную декларацию

13. охот. дрессировать (собаку)

enter

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

enter [enter enters entered entering] BrE ['entə(r)]<sup>а</sup> NAmE ['entər]<sup>а</sup> verb

COME/GO IN

1. intransitive, transitive (not usually used in the passive) (formal) to come or go into sth

- Knock before you enter.
- Enter Hamlet (= for example as stage directions in the text of a play) .
- ~ sth Someone entered the room behind me.
- Where did the bullet enter the body?
- (figurative) A note of defiance entered her voice.
- (figurative) It never entered my head (= I never thought) that she would tell him about me.

JOIN INSTITUTION/START WORK

2. transitive, no passive ~ sth (formal) to become a member of an institution; to start working in an organization or a profession

- to enter a school/college/university
- to enter politics
- to enter Parliament (= become an MP)
- to enter the Church (= become a priest)

BEGIN ACTIVITY

3. transitive ~ sth to begin or become involved in an activity, a situation, etc

- to enter a relationship/conflict/war
- Several new firms have now entered the market.
- The investigation has entered a new phase.
- The strike is entering its fourth week.

EXAM/COMPETITION

4. transitive, intransitive to put your name on the list for an exam, a race, a competition, etc; to do this for sb

- ~ sth 1 000 children entered the competition.
- ~ sb/sth in sth Irish trainers have entered several horses in the race.
- ~ sb/sth for sth How many students have been entered for the exam?
- ~ (for sth) Only four British players have entered for the championship.

WRITE INFORMATION

5. transitive to put names, numbers, details, etc. in a list, book or computer

- ~ sth (in sth) Enter your name and occupation in the boxes (= on a form) .
- ~ sth (into sth) to enter data into a computer
- ~ sth (on sth) to enter figures on a spreadsheet

SAY OFFICIALLY

6. transitive ~ sth (formal) to say sth officially so that it can be recorded

- to enter a plea of not guilty (= at the beginning of a court case)
- to enter an offer

see also ↑entrance, ↑entry, see come/enter into force at ↑force <sub>n.</sub>, enter sb's/your name at ↑name <sub>n.</sub>

Derived ↑enter into something ▪ ↑enter on something

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	enter
	BrE / 'entə(r) /
	NAme / 'entər /
he / she / it	enters BrE / 'entəz /
	NAme / 'entərz /
past simple, past participle	entered BrE / 'entəd /
	NAme / 'entərd /
-ing form	entering
	BrE / 'entəriŋ /
	NAme / 'entəriŋ /

Word Origin:

Middle English: from Old French entrer, from Latin intrare, from intra 'within'.

Thesaurus:

enter verb I, T (formal)

• He was refused permission to enter the country.

go in • • come in • • set foot in/on sth •

Opp: exit, Opp: leave enter/go in/come in by/through sth enter/go into/come into/set foot in a room/building/country/town

Example Bank:

- Employees of Telegraph Newspapers Ltd are not eligible to enter the competition.
- Enter the data onto the computer.
- He did not wish to enter the Church like his brothers.
- He stood back to allow us to enter.
- Over a thousand people entered the competition.
- Please enter all your personal details on the form provided
- Staying married is a choice that is freely entered into.
- The dancers entered from the side of the stage.
- They pass each other as they enter and exit the building.
- We entered through a large iron gate.
- You may need to enter this information manually.
- Your details have been entered in our database.
- people who enter the country illegally
- Enter Hamlet and three of the players.
- Enter your name and age in the boxes.
- He entered the details of the case into a file.
- He was refused permission to enter the country.
- Her solicitor entered a plea of not guilty on her behalf.
- I entered politics late in life.
- I knocked and a bored voice said, 'Enter'.
- It never entered my head that she would tell him about me.
- It was his aim to enter the Church.
- No one was allowed to enter the room while the police were there.
- Please knock before you enter.
- She entered Parliament in 1998.
- She entered college in 2006.
- The burglars must have entered through a window.
- The jury entered a verdict of acquittal.
- The notebook window is where you can enter and display data.
- When did the US enter the conflict?

enter

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

enter S2 W1 /'entə $ -ər/ BrE " AmE " verb

[Word Family: noun: †entrance, †entrant, †entry; verb: †enter]

[Date: 1200-1300; Language: Old French; Origin: entrer, from Latin intrare, from intra 'inside']

1. GO INTO

a) [intransitive and transitive] to go or come into a place:

" Silence fell as I entered the room.

" Few reporters dared to enter the war zone.

b) [transitive] if an object enters part of something, it goes inside it:

" The bullet had entered his brain.

2. START WORKING [intransitive and transitive] to start working in a particular profession or organization, or to start studying at a school or university:

" Both the boys entered the army.

She entered politics in 1996.

He entered the Church (=became a priest) as a young man.

3. START AN ACTIVITY [transitive] to start to take part in an activity, or become involved in a situation:

He entered the election as the clear favourite.

The rebels were prepared to enter negotiations (=start discussing something).

4. COMPUTER

a) [transitive] to put information into a computer by pressing the keys:

Press the return key to enter the information.

enter something into something

The names are entered into a database.

b) [intransitive and transitive] if you enter a computer system, you are given permission to use it by the computer:

It won't let you enter without a password.

5. WRITE INFORMATION [transitive] to write information on a particular part of a form, document etc:

Don't forget to enter your postcode.

enter in/into

Enter your name in the space provided.

6. COMPETITION/EXAMINATION [intransitive and transitive] to arrange to take part in a race, competition, examination etc, or to arrange for someone else to take part:

At least 30 schools entered the competition.

enter for

Decisions about when he or she is entered for an examination should be taken very carefully.

7. PERIOD OF TIME [transitive] to begin a period of time when something happens:

The economy has entered a period of recession.

enter its third week/sixth day/second year etc

The talks have now entered their third week.

8. START TO EXIST [transitive] if a new idea, thought etc enters your head, or a new quality enters something, it suddenly starts to exist there:

A note of panic entered her voice.

it never entered sb's head/mind (=used to say that someone never considered a particular idea, especially when this is surprising)

It never entered his head that she might be seeing someone else.

9. enter sb's life if someone or something enters your life, you start to know them or be affected by them:

By the time Angie entered his life, he was almost 30.

10. OFFICIAL STATEMENT [transitive] formal to make an official statement:

Wilson entered a plea of not guilty (=said that he was not guilty at the beginning of a court case).

Residents entered a number of objections to the scheme.

• • •

THESAURUS

- enter to go or come into a place. Enter is more formal than go in: It appears the burglars entered the house through a back window. | Occupying troops entered the town on 8th April.
- go in/into something to enter a place. Go in/into is the usual phrase to use in everyday English: It was getting cold so we went in. | He went into the cafe and ordered a drink.
- come in/into something to enter a place – used when you are already in that place: Come in and sit down. | When you come into the village, you'll see the church on your right.
- get in/into something to succeed in entering a place, especially when it is difficult or it takes a long time: I'd lost my key so I couldn't get in. | You can't get into the club if you are under 18.
- break in/into something to enter a building using force, for example in order to steal something: If anyone tries to break in, the alarm will go off.
- burst in/into something to enter a room or building very suddenly and noisily: Two men with guns burst in and told us to lie on the floor. | He burst into my office laughing and screaming like a maniac.
- barge in/into something to suddenly enter a room where you are not wanted because you are interrupting someone or you were not invited: She just barged into my room without knocking. | You can't just go barging in.
- sneak in/into something to enter a place quietly and secretly hoping that no one will notice you: If you're late, just try and sneak into the back of the class.
- slip in/into something to enter a place quietly and quickly: Maggie opened the door silently and slipped in.
- trespass formal to enter an area of land that belongs to someone else without permission: The sign said 'Trespassers will be prosecuted'. | Trespassing on the railway is a criminal offence in the UK.

enter into something phrasal verb

1. enter into an agreement /contract etc to make an official agreement to do something enter into an agreement/contract etc with

Some local authorities have entered into partnership with private companies.

2. to start discussing or dealing with something:

It could be a problem, but we don't need to enter into that just yet.

enter into discussions/negotiations (with somebody)

The government refused to enter into discussions with the opposition.

3. [usually in negatives] to affect a situation and be something that you consider when you make a choice:

He always buys the best – money doesn't enter into it.

4. enter into the spirit of it/things to take part in a game, party etc in an eager way enter upon something phrasal verb formal to start doing something or being involved in it:

" countries newly entering upon industrialization

enter

12500 704<sup>MCW</sup>

15000 574<sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 1k ENTER 83589

enter 19758

entered 19539

unentered 0

entering 9977

enters 7457

entrance 10797

entrances 844

entries 3907

entry 11310

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

9192 3605<sup>11348</sup> vvi

6475 4676<sup>8395</sup> vv0

6 341412<sup>6</sup> jj

5 382676<sup>5</sup> nn1

4 443135<sup>4</sup> nnu