

communal

[ˈkɒmjʊn(ə)] a

1. общинный
communal land - общинная земля
2. коммунальный, общественный communal kitchens - общественные столовые (для безработных и т. п.) communal flat - коммунальная квартира
3. 1) относящийся к коммуне
2) (Communal) уст. относящийся к Парижской Коммуне
4. относящийся к религиозным или национальным общинам communal trouble - стычки /вражда/ между общинами /группами населения/ (по национальному или религиозному вопросу)

communal

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

com·mu·nal BrE [kə'mjuːnəl] BrE ['kɒmjənəl] NAmE [kə'mjuːnəl] adjective

1. shared by, or for the use of, a number of people, especially people who live together

Syn: shared

- a communal kitchen/garden, etc.
- As a student he tried communal living for a few years.

2. involving different groups of people in a community

- communal violence between religious groups

Derived Word ↑communally

Word Origin:

[communal communally] early 19th cent. (in the sense 'relating to a commune, especially the Paris Commune'): from French, from late Latin communalis, from communis 'common'.

Example Bank:

- He led me down the corridor to the communal kitchen.
- The gardens surrounding the building were communal.
- Water is fetched daily from a communal tap in the centre of the village.

communal

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

com mu 'nal /'kɒmjənəl, 'kɒmjʊnəl, kə'mjuːnəl $ 'kɑː- BrE AmE adjective

1. shared by a group of people or animals, especially a group who live together:
a communal bathroom

2. involving people from many different races, religions, or language groups:
the worst communal violence in two years

3. relating or belonging to all the people living in a particular community:
crops grown on communal land

communal

Freakuency Pack

12500 7112^{MCW}
 15000 4629^{COCA} RANGE: 6k COMMUNAL ³⁶⁹³ communal ³⁵²⁶
 communally ¹⁶⁷
 COCA 500k Unlemmatized
 2022 9072³⁵²⁶ jj