

farmland['fɑ:mlənd] n

- 1) земля, пригодная для обработки обрабатываемая земля
- 2) сельскохозяйственный район

farmland

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

farm-land [farmland farmlands] BrE ['fɑːmlænd] AmE ['fɑːrmlænd] *noununcountable, plural

land that is used for farming

- 250 acres of farmland
- the prosperous farmlands of Picardy

Example Bank:

- Dai's family had been working on the farmlands around Rhydoldog for generations.
- The United States loses over 4 000 acres of farmland every day.

farmland

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

farm-land /'fɑːmlænd,-lənd $ 'fɑːrmlænd BrE AmE noun [uncountable]

land used for farming

• • •

THESAURUS

- land an area that is owned by someone or that can be used for farming or building houses: This is private land. | They moved to the country and bought some land.
- farmland land that is used for farming: The area is one of gently rolling hills and farmland.
- territory land that belongs to a country or that is controlled by a country during a war: His plane was forced to make an emergency landing in Chinese territory. | The army was advancing into enemy territory.
- the grounds the gardens and land around a big building such as a castle, school, or hospital: The grounds of the castle are open to visitors every weekend. | the school grounds
- estate a large area of land in the country, usually with one large house on it and one owner: The film is set on an English country estate.

farmland

Freakuency Pack

12500 7144<sup>MCW</sup>15000 6267<sup>COCA</sup>RANGE: 6k FARMLAND 1972

farmland 1710

farmlands 262

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1243 14918<sup>1710</sup> nn1