

mast

I

1. [mɑːst] n

мачта

mast aerial - антенна-мачта мачтовая антенна

mast timber - мор. рангоутное дерево

◇ sailor before the mast - простой матрос

to sail /to serve/ before the mast - служить простым матросом

to nail one's colours to the mast - открыто отстаивать свои убеждения, твёрдо стоять на своём

2. [mɑːst] v

1) ставить мачту

2) поднимать на мачту; иметь на мачте

II

[mɑːst] n с.-х.

плодокорм

mast

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

mast [mast masts masted masting] BrE [mɑːst] ^u NAmE [mæst] ^u noun1. a tall pole on a boat or ship that supports the sails2. a tall metal tower with an ↑aerial that sends and receives radio or television signals3. a tall pole that is used for holding a flagsee nail your colours to the mast at ↑nail ^v.

see also ↑half mast

Word Origin:

Old English mæst, of West Germanic origin; related to Dutch mast and German Mast.

mast

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

mast /mɑːst/ mæst/ BrE ^u AmE ^u noun [countable]

[Language: Old English; Origin: mæst]

1. a tall pole on which the sails or flags on a ship are hung2. British English a tall metal tower that sends out radio and television signals:^u a radio mast3. a tall pole on which a flag is hung

⇒ ↑half-mast

mast

Freakuency Pack

12500 7188^{MCW}15000 7855^{COCA}RANGE: 6k MAST ¹²³⁶mast ⁹³⁸masts ²⁷⁷foremast ²¹foremasts ⁰

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

⁵³⁹ 22229⁹²⁰ nn1¹ 191965¹⁸ np1