

organisationor-gan-iza-tion (BrE also -isa-tion) [organization organizations] BrE

[ˌɔːrɡənəˈzeɪʃən] NAmE [ˌɔːrɡənəˈzeɪ] n noun

- 1. countable a group of people who form a business, club, etc. together in order to achieve a particular aim
 - to work for a business/political/voluntary organization
 - the World Health Organization
 - He's the president of a large international organization.

- 2. uncountable the act of making arrangements or preparations for sth

Syn: ↑planning

- I leave most of the organization of these conferences to my assistant.
- A wedding on that scale takes a lot of organization.

- 3. uncountable the way in which the different parts of sth are arranged

Syn: ↑structure

- The report studies the organization of labour within the company.

- 4. uncountable the quality of being arranged in a neat, careful and logical way

- She is highly intelligent but her work lacks organization.

Derived Words ↑organizational ▪ ↑organizationally*See also: ↑-isation*Thesaurus:*organization (BrE also -isation) noun1. C

- voluntary organizations working with the homeless

institution • • institute • • association • • society • • federation • • union • • club • • guild • |BrE centre • |AmE center •a/an organization/institution/institute/association/society/club/centre for stha national organization/institute/association/society/federation/union/cluba government organization/institution/institutiona research/training organization/institution/institute/centre2. U

- An event on this scale takes a lot of organization.

planning • • arrangement • • preparation • • coordination • • provision •organization/planning/arrangements/preparations/provision for sb/sthdo the organization/planning/preparation/coordinationa lack of organization/planning/preparation/coordination/provision3. U

- She's intelligent, but her work lacks organization.

order • • structure • |formal coherence •have/lack organization/order/structure/coherenceOrganization or order? Order is a state that can be created, or that sth can be put into; organization is a quality that sth either has or lacks:

- Get your ideas into some sort of order.

✗ Get your ideas into some sort of organization.:

- creating order out of chaos

✗ creating organization out of chaos*Example Bank:

- I admire her effective organization of the campaign.
- Most of these mistakes were the result of poor organization.
- The country plans to leave the organization.
- There are several talented people in that organization.
- a front organization for drug trafficking
- a high degree of organization
- the smooth organization of the trip
- An event on this scale takes a lot of organization.
- As a manager he's obsessed with organization.
- Different public sector organizations adopt different accounting practices.
- She's highly intelligent but her work lacks organization.
- The World Health Organization has called for $10 million to purchase medical supplies.
- The group is seen as a political organization.
- The report studies the organization of labour within the civil service.
- There are several non-governmental and non-profit organizations offering humanitarian assistance in the region.
- There need to be changes throughout the organization.
- These ideas are too simple for the more complex organization of modern societies.
- They blamed the government for the poor organization of the election.
- They experimented with new forms of social organization.
- This should improve communications within the organization.

- Voluntary organizations working with the homeless are against the proposal.
- We examined the organization of existing charities.
- What do you think about the general organization of the piece?

organisation

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

organ iza tion S2 W1 BrE " AmE " (also organisation British English) /ɔːrənəzən/

$,ɔːrənə noun

[Word Family: noun: ↑organization ≠DISORGANIZATION ↑reorganization, ↑organizer; verb: ↑organize ≠DISORGANIZE, ↑reorganize; adjective: ↑organizational, ↑organized ≠↑disorganized]

1. [countable] a group such as a club or business that has formed for a particular purpose:

- The public expect high standards from any large organization.
- the World Trade Organization
- a voluntary organization which helps disabled people with their transport needs
- an illegal terrorist organization
- international organizations such as the UN

2. [uncountable] planning and arranging something so that it is successful or effective:

- Putting on a show of this kind involves considerable organisation.

organization of

- The college has helped Anne with the organization of the event.

3. [uncountable] the way in which the different parts of a system are arranged and work together

organization of

- There needs to be a change in the organization of the health service.

—organizational adjective:

- organizational skills
- • •

THESAURUS

- organization a group of people, companies, or countries, which is set up for a particular purpose: Greenpeace is an international organization that protects the environment. | the World Health Organization
- institution a large important organization such as a bank, church, or university: The University is an important academic institution. | financial institutions such as banks
- association an organization for people in a particular profession, sport, or activity, which officially represents its members – often used in names: I met a representative of the National Association of Teachers. | the Football Association
- party an organization of people with the same political aims which you can vote for in elections: Which political party do you support? | He voted for the Republican Party's candidate.
- body an important group of people who make the rules and advise people about what should be allowed: the sport's governing body | The government has set up an advisory body.
- club/society an organization for people who share an interest, for example a sport: We belong to a tennis club. | I joined the university film society.
- union an organization formed by workers in order to protect their rights: The union ordered its members out on strike.
- charity an organization which collects money to help people who are poor, sick etc and does not make any profit for itself: She has raised a lot of money for local charities.
- quango British English disapproving an organization set up by the government, which has official power but whose members have not been elected: the amount of money that is wasted on government quangos

organisation

Freakuency Pack

12500 737^{MCW}

15000 418^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k ORGANIZE 115833

organize 5925
 organisation 143
 organisations 151
 organise 32
 organised 92
 disorganised 0 disorganized 634
 unorganised 0 organises 6
 organising 23
 organization 41961
 organizations 28248
 organized 17674
 organizes 681
 organizing 5513
 organisational 30
 organisationally 0 organiser 11
 organisers 10
 organizer 1920
 organizers 3040

organizational 6783
organizationally 134
reorganise 0 reorganises 0 reorganised 0 reorganising 0 reorganisation 6
reorganisations 0 reorganize 532
reorganizes 41
reorganized 537
reorganizing 273
reorganization 1362
reorganizations 71

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

¹⁰⁸63159¹⁴³ nn1
