bonfire Apresyan (En-Ru)

['bɒnfaɪə] n

костёр (часто по случаю какого-л празднества)

to make bonfires - жечь костры

to make a bonfire of smth. - сжечь /уничтожить/ что-л; предать что-л огню

bonfire

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

bon-fire [bonfire bonfires] BrE ['bonfaɪə(r)]  NAmE ['banfanər noun a large outdoor fire for burning waste or as part of a celebration

Word Origin:

late Middle English: from $\frac{1}{\text{bone}}$ + $\frac{1}{\text{fire}}$. The term originally denoted a large open-air fire on which bones were burnt (sometimes as part of a celebration), also one for burning heretics or proscribed literature. Dr Johnson accepted the mistaken idea that the word came from French bon 'good'.

Example Bank:

- It was 5 November— Bonfire Night— and the children were excited.
- Tell the neighbours before you light the bonfire in case they're in the garden.
- There will be a bonfire and a firework display.
- · What are you doing for Bonfire Night?

bonfire Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

bon fire /'bonfare $ 'ba □ nfa ØBrE AmE noun [countable]

[Date: 1500-1600; Origin: bonfire 'fire made from bones' (14-17 centuries), from bone + fire]

a large outdoor fire, either for burning waste or for a party

bonfire Freakuency Pack

125007562MCW 150008380COCA

RANGE: 5k BONFIRE 1089

bonfire 854 bonfires 235

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

49323881819 nn1

₅386883⁵ nnu