

allot [ə'lot] *v*1. часто pass1) отводить, выделять (на чью-л. долю); предназначать; назначать

to allot smth. to smb. for a purpose - предназначать кому-л. что-л. для какой-л. цели

to allot credits - предоставлять/выделять/ кредиты

to allot a task - возлагать /ставить, определять/ задачу

they were allotted a house to live in - им отвели отдельный дом

our class was allotted the flower garden - нашему классу была поручена работа в цветнике

what is allotted to you? - что пришлось на вашу долю?

each speaker is allotted five minutes - каждому оратору даётся 5 минут, регламент выступления - 5 минут

2) отчислять, ассигновывать

to allot money for a park - ассигновывать деньги /отчислять средства/ на устройство парка

to allot credits - предоставлять кредиты

2. распределять, раздавать; наделять

to allot profits - распределять прибыль

to allot fairly [unjustly, impartially] - распределять честно [несправедливо, беспристрастно]

3. воен.

1) придавать

2) вводить в состав

allot

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

allot [allot allot allotting] BrE [ə'lot] ¹ NAmE [ə'laɒt] ² verb (-tt-)

to give time, money, tasks, etc. to sb/sth as a share of what is available

• ~ sth I completed the test within the time allotted .• ~ sth to sb/sth How much money has been allotted to us?• ~ sb/sth sth How much money have we been allotted?Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we /they	allot
	BrE /ə'lot/
	NAmE /ə'la:t/
he / she /it	allots
	BrE /ə'lots/
	NAmE /ə'la:ts/
past simple, past participle	allotted
	BrE /ə'lotɪd/
	NAmE /ə'la:tɪd/
-ing form	allotting
	BrE /ə'lotɪŋ/
	NAmE /ə'la:tɪŋ/

Word Origin:late 15th cent.: from Old French aloter, from a- (from Latin ad 'to') + loter 'divide into lots'.Example Bank:

• I managed to complete the test within the time allotted.

allot

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

al lot /ə'lot $ ə'laɒt BrE ¹ AmE ² verb (past tense and past participle allotted, present participle allotting) [transitive][Date: 1400-1500; Language: Old French; Origin: aloter, from lot 'person's share']to use a particular amount of time for something, or give a particular share of money, space etc to someone or something SYN*allocate*allot something to something/somebody

" Try and allot two or three hours a day to revision.

" Each school will be allotted twenty seats.

allot somebody something

" Everyone who works for the company has been allotted ten shares.

—allotted adjective [only before noun]:

" The department has already spent more than its allotted budget.

allot

Freakuency Pack

12500 7625^{MCW}15000 6178^{COCA}RANGE: 5k ALLOT 2036

allot 95

allotting 50

allotted 1044

allots 41

allotment 587

allotments 219

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

⁶⁶93272⁶⁷ vvi

²⁸147149²⁸ vv0
