

impeccable1. [ɪmˈpekəb(ə)] n

непогрешимый, безупречный человек

2. [ɪmˈpekəb(ə)] a

1) безгрешный; непогрешимый

2) безупречный, безукоризненный

her logical process is impeccable - к её рассуждениям не придерёшься

she speaks impeccable French - она блестяще говорит по-французски his record is impeccable - его карьера безупречна

impeccable

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

im·pec·cable BrE [ɪmˈpekəbəl] ^u NAmE [ɪmˈpekəbəl] ^u adjective

without mistakes or faults

Syn: ↑perfect• impeccable manners/taste

• Her written English is impeccable.

• He was dressed in a suit and an impeccable white shirt.

Derived Word ↑impeccably*Word Origin:[impeccable impeccably] mid 16th cent. (in the theological sense): from Latin impeccabilis, from in- ‘not’ + peccare ‘to sin’.Example Bank:

• Our staff take pride in providing impeccable service.

• She came to the company with impeccable credentials.

• impeccable manners/taste

impeccable

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

im·pec·ca·ble /ɪmˈpekəbəl/ BrE ^u AmE ^u adjective[Date: 1500-1600; Language: Latin; Origin: impeccabilis, from peccare ‘to do bad things’]without any faults and impossible to criticize SYN perfect:• She has taught her children impeccable manners.

• a bar with impeccable service

—impeccably adverb:

• impeccably dressed

• • •

THESAURUS■ without anything wrong• perfect used about something that is very good in every way, and could not be better: We had a wonderful vacation - the weather was perfect. | The meal was absolutely perfect. | She has perfect teeth.• flawless/faultless without any mistakes or faults: His English was flawless. | a flawless performance• impeccable so good that you cannot find anything wrong with it – used especially about someone’s behaviour, taste, or experience: The food was excellent and the service impeccable. | a man of impeccable manners, charm, and sensibility | her mother’s impeccable taste in clothing | The commission was composed of economists with impeccable credentials (=very impressive qualifications and experience, which are impossible to criticize).• unspoiled (also unspoilt British English) an unspoiled area has not been changed or had ugly buildings, roads etc built on it: a beautiful area of unspoiled countrysideimpeccable

Freakuency Pack

12500 7733^{MCW}15000 7517^{COCA}RANGE: 6k IMPECCABLE 1350impeccable ⁹⁴⁴impeccably ⁴⁰⁶

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

900 21861⁹⁴⁴ jj