

sacrament[ˈsækrəmənt] *n*1. церк.

1) таинство

2) (the Sacrament) причастие, святые дары; евхаристия

the Blessed /the Holy/ Sacrament - святое причастие to take the sacrament - причащаться

to receive the last sacrament - причащаться перед смертью

to administer the sacrament - приобщать святых тайн

2. священный символ, знак (крест и т. п.)

3. святыня; предмет поклонения, культа

4. торжественная присяга, торжественный обет to take the sacrament to do smth. /upon smth./ - давать обет выполнить что-л.

sacrament

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

sac·ra·ment [sacrament sacraments] BrE [ˈsækrəmənt] ^u NAmE [ˈsækrəmənt]^u noun

(in Christianity)

1. countable an important religious ceremony such as marriage, ↑baptism or ↑Communion2. the sacrament singular the bread and wine that are eaten and drunk during the service of ↑Communion

• to receive the sacrament

Derived Word ↑sacramentalWord Origin:Middle English: from Old French sacrement, from Latin sacramentum ‘solemn oath’ (from sacrare ‘to consecrate’, from sacer ‘sacred’), used in Christian Latin as a translation of Greek mustērion ‘mystery’.Example Bank:

• to receive the sacrament of Christian baptism

sacrament

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

sacra·ment /ˈsækrəmənt/ BrE ^u AmE ^u noun [countable][Date: 1100-1200; Language: Old French; Origin: Late Latin sacramentum, from Latin sacrare ‘to make holy’]1. the Sacrament the bread and wine that are eaten at ↑communion (=an important Christian ceremony)

2. one of the important Christian ceremonies, such as marriage or ↑communion

—sacramental /ˌsækrəˈmentl̩·/ *adjectivesacrament

Freakuency Pack

12500 7988^{MCW}15000 5718^{COCA}RANGE: 6k SACRAMENT ²³⁸⁷sacrament ⁹⁸¹sacraments ⁶³⁴sacramental ⁷⁷²

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

449 21459⁹⁷³ *nn1*5 302919⁸ nnu