

station1. ['steɪʃ(ə)n] n*1. место, местоположение

he took up a convenient station - он занял удобную позицию

they returned to their several stations - они вернулись каждый на своё место

2. 1) станция, центр, (главный) пункт meteorological [seismological, life-boat] station - метеорологическая [сейсмологическая, спасательная] станция filling /амер. gas/ station - бензоколонка dressing station - перевязочный пункт arctic station - арктическая станция coast-guard station - пост береговой охраны central station - а) электростанция б) мор. центральный пост

2) радиостанция

station designator - позывные радиостанции

3) амер. почтовое отделение3. 1) вокзал*2) железнодорожная станция station yard - ж.-д. станционные пути station bus - автобус гостиницы, встречающий постояльцев на станции

3) стоянка4. *воен.1) пост

battle station - боевой пост

2) пункт расквартирования3) гарнизон

station hospital - гарнизонный госпиталь

5. 1) авиационная база, авиабаза station commander - начальник авиационной базы

2) военно-морская база6. остановка (в пути)

we get out at the next station - мы выходим на следующей остановке

7. место прохождения службы (командированного); страна или город пребывания (дипломата и т. п.)

after a visit home he returned to his station - после поездки домой он вернулся на место работы

8. общественное положение

a woman of high station - высокопоставленная дама

9. спорт. место на старте10. геод. визирный пункт*11. *тех.1) узел (агрегата)*2) этап (технологического потока)*12. спец. ареал, место распространения, станция, участок местообитания*13. австрал. овечьё пастбище*14. редк. стоячее положение; постановка, постанов*15. участок (полицейский)*16. пожарное депо*17. амер. добавочный номер (коммутатора)

station 1304 - добавочный 1304

◇ Stations of the Cross - а) остановки (Христа) на крестном пути; б) иск. кальварии

2. ['steɪʃ(ə)n] v1) ставить на предусмотренное место*2) направлять на место работы the consul is stationed at ... - консул работает в ...; консульство находится в ...

3) помещать, размещать; определять позицию (для войск, кораблей и т. п.) to station a guard - выставлять караул to station oneself - размещаться, располагаться

4) размещать по спискуstation

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

station [station stations stationed stationing] noun, verb BrE ['steɪʃn] ¹ NAmE

['steɪʃn]

noun

FOR TRAINS/BUSES1. a place where trains stop so that passengers can get on and off, the buildings connected with this

- I get off at the next station.
- the main station
- Penn Station
- a train station
- (BrE also) a railway station

• (BrE) a tube/an underground station

• (NAme) a subway station

2. (usually in compounds) a place where buses stop; the buildings connected with this

• a bus/coach station In Britain, the word station on its own usually refers to the train station

• Can you tell me the way to the station? In the US it is usual to say which station you are talking about

• the train station

• the Greyhound Bus station

FOR WORK/SERVICE

3. (usually in compounds) a place or building where a service is organized and provided or a special type of work is done

• a police station

• (BrE) a petrol station

• (NAme) a gas station

• an agricultural research station

• a pollution monitoring station

compare ↑space station

RADIO/TV COMPANY

4. (often in compounds) a radio or television company and the programmes it broadcasts

• a local radio/TV station

• He tuned to another station.

SOCIAL POSITION

5. (old-fashioned or formal) your social position

• She was definitely getting ideas above her station.

POSITION

6. a place where sb has to wait and watch or be ready to do work if needed

• You are not to leave your station without permission.

see also ↑docking station

LARGE FARM

7. (usually in compounds) a large sheep or ↑cattle farm in Australia or New Zealand

FOR ARMY/NAVY

8. a small base for the army or navy; the people living in it

• a naval station

see also ↑action stations, see panic stations at ↑panic _{n.}

Word Origin:

Middle English (as a noun): via Old French from Latin statio(n-), from stare 'to stand'. Early use referred generally to "position", especially 'position in life, status', and specifically, in ecclesiastical use, to 'a holy place of pilgrimage (visited as one of a group)'. The verb dates from the late 16th cent.

Thesaurus:

station noun

1. C

• Get off at the next station.

stop • bus stop • terminus • terminal • destination • |AmE depot •

a rail/railway/railroad station/terminus/terminal

a train station/terminus/depot

a bus station/terminus/terminal/depot arrive at the station/stop/bus stop/terminal/your destination

2. C (often in compounds)

• a local radio/TV station

channel • network • |technical frequency •

a television station/channel/network

a radio station/network/frequency tune to a station/channel/frequency

Example Bank:

• I can pick up a lot of foreign stations on this radio.

• I went into a polling station and cast my vote.

• The UK post was a way station to retirement.

• The bus leaves the station at 09.00 hours.

• The meeting had to be abandoned after local fire station officer, Dave Temple, was called away to a fire.

• The police led me into the station house.

• The station airs 14 hours of local news per week.

• The train arrived at Oxford Station twenty minutes late.

- There's a newspaper kiosk in the station.
- We get off at the next station.
- We got to the station just as the train was pulling out.
- We stopped for a break at a motorway service station.
- We waited for him at the bus station.
- a digital radio station
- a gas station attendant
- the CIA station chief in Vietnam
- I bought a newspaper at the bus station.
- I'll get a coffee at the station.
- I'll give you a lift to the station.
- I'm getting off at the next station.
- Temple is the name of both a London tube station and a Paris metro station.
- The train left the station on time.
- The train was just arriving at the station.
- There was an explosion in a subway station.
- They met on the station platform.
- a local radio/TV station
- the railroad/train/subway/bus station

verb

ARMED FORCES

1. often passive ~ sb + adv./prep. to send sb, especially from one of the armed forces, to work in a place for a period of time
 - troops stationed abroad

GO TO POSITION

2. ~ sb/yourself + adv./prep. (formal) to go somewhere and stand or sit there, especially to wait for sth; to send sb somewhere to do this
 - She stationed herself at the window to await his return.
 - A photographer had been stationed at the main entrance.

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	station
	BrE / 'steɪʃn/
	NAme / 'steɪʃn/
he / she / it	stations
	BrE / 'steɪʃnz/
	NAme / 'steɪʃnz/
past simple, past participle	stationed BrE / 'steɪʃnd/
	NAme / 'steɪʃnd/
-ing form	stationing
	BrE / 'steɪʃnɪŋ/
	NAme / 'steɪʃnɪŋ/

Word Origin:

Middle English (as a noun): via Old French from Latin statio(n-), from stare 'to stand'. Early use referred generally to "position", especially 'position in life, status', and specifically, in ecclesiastical use, to 'a holy place of pilgrimage (visited as one of a group)'. The verb dates from the late 16th cent.

Example Bank:

- The country has over 5 000 troops currently stationed abroad.

station

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. station¹ S1 W1 /'steɪʃən/ BrE ⁿ AmE ⁿ noun

[Date: 1500-1600; Language: French; Origin: Latin statio 'place for standing or stopping', from stare 'to stand']

1. TRAIN/BUS [countable] a place where trains or buses regularly stop so that passengers can get on and off, goods can be loaded etc, or the buildings at such a place ⇒ terminus:

- I want to get off at the next station.
- Grand Central Station
- Is there a waiting room in the station?

train station/railway station British English

- the city bus station

2. CENTRE FOR A SERVICE OR ACTIVITY [countable] a building or place that is a centre for a particular kind of service or activity:

- a police station
- a fire station

petrol station British English gas station American English (=where petrol is sold) polling station (=where you vote in an election)

- an Antarctic research station ⇒ ↑ action stations

3. RADIO/TV [countable] an organization which makes television or radio broadcasts, or the building where this is done:
 - " New York jazz station WBGO
 - " a local TV station
4. SOCIAL RANK [countable] *old-fashioned your position in society:
 - " Karen was definitely getting ideas above her station (=higher than her social rank).
5. POSITION [countable] *formal a place where someone stands or sits in order to be ready to do something quickly if needed:
 - " You're not to leave your station unless told.
6. FARM [countable] a large sheep or cattle farm in Australia or New Zealand
7. ARMY/NAVY [countable] a small military establishment:
 - " an isolated naval station
 - • •

THESAURUS

- station a place where trains or buses regularly stop: The town has its own railway station. | Paddington Station in west London | the bus station
- terminus the station or stop at the end of a railway or bus line: We've arranged to meet her at the Victoria bus terminus. | the railway terminus in central Calcutta
- track [usually plural] the metal lines along which trains travel. This is sometimes used in American English to say which part of a station a train will leave from: The passenger train, traveling at 120 mph, careered off the tracks.
- platform the raised place beside a railway track where you get on and off a train in a station – used especially to say which part of a station a train will leave from: Trains for Oxford leave from Platform 2.
- ticket office (also booking office British English) the place at a station where tickets are sold: You can buy rail tickets online or at the ticket office.
- departures board *British English (also departure board American English) a board saying when and from which part of a station each train will leave: The departures board said that the train was ten minutes late.

II. station² BrE ^{*} AmE ^{*} verb [transitive usually passive]

1. to send someone in the military to a particular place for a period of time as part of their military duty SYN post
 - " I was stationed overseas at the time.
2. formal to move to a particular place and stand or sit there, especially in order to be able to do something quickly, or to cause someone to do this:
 - " A security guard was stationed near the door.

station

Freakuency Pack

12500 799^{MCW}
 15000 914^{COCA} RANGE: 1k STATION ⁵¹³⁸⁶ station ³⁶⁰⁵² stations ¹²⁶⁷¹ stationed ²⁵²⁷
 stationing ¹³⁶
 COCA 500k Unlemmatized
 16700 1161³⁵⁸²² nn1
 88 79555⁹¹ vv0
 69 80675⁸⁹ np1
 27 139933³¹ nnu
 10 259701¹⁰ vvi
 5 380491⁵ jj
 4 450440⁴ pph1