

duvet[ˈduː(ː)ˈveɪ] n фр.

1. пуховое одеяло
2. стёганая куртка

duvet

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

duvet [duvet duvets] BrE [ˈduːvɛɪ] NAmE [ˈduːvɛɪ] NAmE [duːvɛɪ] (alsocontinental 'quilt, quilt) noun (all BrE)

a large cloth bag that is filled with feathers or other soft material and that you have on top of you in bed to keep yourself warm

- a duvet cover (= a cover that you can wash, that you put over a ↑duvet)

See also: ↑continental quilt ▪ ↑quilt

Word Origin:

mid 18th cent.: from French, literally down.

Example Bank:

- He flung back the duvet and got out of bed.
- He snuggled down under the warm duvet.
- She climbed into bed and pulled the duvet over her.

duvet

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

duvet /ˈduːvɛɪˈdʒuː/$ duːvɛɪ BrE AmE noun [countable] especially British English[Date: 1700-1800; Language: French; Origin: 'soft feathers']a large cloth bag filled with feathers or similar material that you use to cover yourself in bed SYN comforter *American Englishduvet

Freakuency Pack

12500 8048^{MCW}15000 14840^{COCA}RANGE: 6k DUVET 178

duvet 159

duvets 19

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

119 59731¹⁵⁹ nn1