

title

1. [ˈtʌɪtəl] n
 - 1) заглавие, название
full [short] title - полное [сокращённое] название the title of a book [of a film] - название книги [фильма] as the title indicates /suggests/ ... - как показывает название (книги и т. п.) ...
 - 2) имя
to go /to be known/ by /under/ the title of ... - быть известным под именем ...
this does not qualify for the title of poetry - это не может называться поэзией
 - 3) = title page
 - 4) книга; название; издание to publish five titles - опубликовать пять книг there are ten titles on the list - в списке десять названий titles so far published include ... - среди уже опубликованных книг ...
the new title covers contemporary linguistics and semiotics - новая книга посвящена современной лингвистике и семиотике
 2. 1) титул, звание
the title of a duke [of a professor] - титул герцога [звание профессора] persons of title - титулованные особы to have a title - быть титулованной особой; иметь титул или звание to give smb. a title - присвоить кому-л. титул или звание to deprive smb. of a title - лишить кого-л. звания to address smb. by his correct title - правильно титуловать кого-л.
you deserve the title of a true friend - образн. вы заслужили право называться настоящим другом
 - 2) спорт. звание чемпиона
the title of master of sports - звание мастера спорта title fight - финальная встреча, бой за звание чемпиона (бокс) to hold the title - обладать званием чемпиона he won the heavyweight title - он стал чемпионом в тяжёлом весе
 3. 1) право
to have a title to smth. - иметь право на что-л.
to give smb. a title - дать кому-л. право to have no title to do so - не иметь (никакого) права поступать таким образом
 - 2) основание
sufficient title - достаточное основание he has a title to a place among the greatest poets - есть все основания считать его одним из величайших поэтов he has no title to your gratitude - он (ничем) не заслужил вашей благодарности, он не должен рассчитывать на вашу благодарность it gives him title to our support - это даёт ему основание /право/ рассчитывать на нашу поддержку
 - 3) возможность
these three offices gave him a title to remodel the state - эти три должности дали ему возможность перестроить государство
 4. кино надпись (в кинофильме), титр title cartoon - рисованная надпись, рисованный титр to insert the titles - титровать снабжать титрами (фильм)
 5. юр. правооснование; правовой титул (мж. legal title) inchoate title - первичное правооснование coloured title - мнимое правооснование colour of title - мнимость правооснования title by conquest - правооснование посредством завладения
 6. юр.
 - 1) право собственности to give smb. title - дать кому-л. право собственности slander of title - злонамеренное и заведомо необоснованное опорочение права лица на какое-л. имущество finders are keepers unless title is proven - тот, кто нашёл вещь, становится её владельцем, если никто другой не докажет права собственности на неё
 - 2) = title deed
title to land - документ, устанавливающий право землевладения
 7. степень чистоты золота, проба золота
2. [ˈtʌɪtəl] a
 1. одноимённый
the name of this book of poems is "Crossroads"; the title poem is the first poem in the volume - этот сборник стихов называется «Перекрёстки»; открывает сборник одноимённое стихотворение
 2. крупный (о шрифте и т. п.)
title letter - заглавная буква
 3. [ˈtʌɪtəl] v
 1. 1) давать заглавие, озаглавливать
 - 2) называть, величать; титуловать
 2. присваивать титул, звание
 3. кино снабжать титрами

title [title titles titled titling] noun, verb BrE ['taɪtl̩] ^u NAmE ['taɪtl̩] ^u noun

- 1. countable the name of a book, poem, painting, piece of music, etc
 - His poems were published under the title of 'Love and Reason'.
 - the title track from their latest CD (= the song with the same title as the disc)
 - She has sung the title role in 'Carmen' (= the role of Carmen in that ↑opera).
- 2. countable a particular book or magazine
 - The company publishes twenty new titles a year.
- 3. countable a word in front of a person's name to show their rank or profession, whether or not they are married, etc
 - The present duke inherited the title from his father.
 - Give your name and title (= Mr, Miss, Ms, Dr, etc.) .
- 4. countable a name that describes a job
 - The official title of the job is 'Administrative Assistant'.
- 5. countable the position of being the winner of a competition, especially a sports competition
 - the world heavyweight title
 - a title fight (= in boxing)
 - She has three world titles.
- 6. uncountable, countable ~ (to sth/to do sth) (law) the legal right to own sth, especially land or property; the document that shows you have this right
 - He claims he has title to the land.

Word Origin:

Old English titul, reinforced by Old French title, both from Latin titulus 'inscription, title'. The word originally denoted a placard or inscription placed on an object, giving information about it, hence a descriptive heading in a book or other composition.

More About:

names and titles

Names

Your name is either your whole name or one part of your name: ▫ My name is Maria. ◇ ▫ His name is Tom Smith.

Your last name or family name (also called surname in BrE) is the name that all members of your family share.

Your first name/names (formal forename) is/are the name(s) your parents gave you when you were born. In BrE some people use the expression Christian name(s) to refer to a person's first name(s).

Your middle name(s) is/are any name your parents gave you other than the one that is placed first. The initial of this name is often used as part of your name, especially in America: ▫ John T. Harvey

Your full name is all your names, usually in the order: first + middle + last name

A woman's maiden name is the family name she had before she got married. Some women keep this name after they are married and do not use their husband's name. In North America, married women often use their maiden name followed by their husband's family name: ▫ Hillary Rodham Clinton. Titles

Mr (for both married and unmarried men)

Mrs (for married women)

Miss (for unmarried women)

Ms (a title that some women prefer to use as it does not distinguish between married and unmarried women)

Doctor, Professor, President, Vice-President, Reverend(or Rev), etc.

The correct way to talk to someone is:

first name, if you know them well: ▫ Hello, Maria.

or title + surname: ▫ Hello, Mr Brown.

or Doctor (medical), Professor, etc. on its own: ▫ Thank you, Doctor. This is only used for a very limited number of titles.

Example Bank:

- 'Minister' is one of several diplomatic titles.
- 'Mrs' was a courtesy title for any unmarried woman in business at that time.
- 'Take me', the title track of his latest album
- 40% of new titles were actually new editions of existing books.
- Bessie Smith earned the title 'Empress of the Blues'.
- Count Victor Oldenburg and Hess, to give him his full title
- Deportivo clinched the title with a goal in the final seconds of the last game of the season.
- Dodge was the title sponsor of the Darlington race.
- He has been building up fitness for his world title challenge.
- He held the world heavyweight title until last year.
- He played the title role in 'Hamlet'.
- He was given the title of 'wise man'.
- His job title is Special Projects Officer.
- She bears the grand title 'Divisional President of the Finances Committee'.
- She bears the grand title 'Divisional President'.
- She has a title.
- She published her poetry under the title 'Homecoming'.
- She published her poetry under the title 'The Land and the Garden'.
- She sang the title role in 'Carmen'.

- Sony has released six new game titles.
- Suzuki won seven consecutive batting titles in Japan's Pacific League.
- The company is publishing fewer titles than last year.
- The justices are accorded the courtesy title 'Lord'.
- The king bestowed lands and titles upon his followers.
- the opening title sequence of the movie
- Give your name and title.
- He hopes to meet the winner of the world middleweight title fight.
- He's a leading contender for the European title.
- He's ready to challenge for the world heavyweight title.
- She'll be defending her title at this week's French Open.
- She's hoping to win her third Olympic title.
- She's the Northern Ireland 400 metres title holder.
- They won 5–1 in the final to retain the title.
- Who holds the title deed?
- the title track from their latest CD verb usually passive ~ sth + noun to give a book, piece of music, etc. a particular name

- Their first album was titled 'Made in Valmez'.

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we / they	title
	BrE / 'taɪtəl/
	NAme / 'taɪtl/
he / she / it	titles
	BrE / 'taɪtlz/
	NAme / 'taɪtlz/
past simple, past participle	titled BrE / 'taɪtɪd/
	NAme / 'taɪtɪd/
-ing form	titling
	BrE / 'taɪtlɪŋ/
	NAme / 'taɪtlɪŋ/

Word Origin:

Old English titul, reinforced by Old French title, both from Latin titulus 'inscription, title'. The word originally denoted a placard or inscription placed on an object, giving information about it, hence a descriptive heading in a book or other composition.

title

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

ti tle S3 W1 /'taɪtəl/ BrE ^ɪ AmE ^ɪ noun

[Word Family: noun: ↑title, ↑subtitle, subtitles, ↑entitlement; verb: ↑entitle, ↑subtitle; adjective: ↑titled, ↑subtitled]

[Date: 1300-1400; Language: Old French; Origin: Latin titulus]

1. [countable] the name given to a particular book, painting, play etc title of

▪ The title of this play is 'Othello'.

REGISTER

In everyday English, people usually say that something is called ..., rather than saying its title is ...:

▪ The play's title is 'Blasted'. → The play is called 'Blasted'.

2. [countable] a book:

▪ the UK's 20 best-selling titles

3. [countable]

a) a name such as 'Sir' or 'Professor', or abbreviations such as 'Mrs' or 'Dr', that are used before someone's name to show their rank or profession, whether they are married etc

b) a name that describes someone's job or position:

▪ Her official title is editor.

4. [countable] the position of being the winner of an important sports competition:

▪ Tyson won the WBA title in 1987.

5. [singular, uncountable] law the legal right to have or own something title to

▪ He has title to the land.

title

Freakuency Pack

12500 838^{MCW}

15000 1237^{COCA}

RANGE: 2k TITLE ³⁵⁹⁶⁶

title 24052

titled 4223

titles 6981

titling 129

untitled 581

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

13640 1830²³⁶¹⁰ nn1

245 40792³²⁴ vv0

79 83553⁸³ vvi

21 148149²⁸ nnu

7 314746⁷ jj
