

sentinel1. ['sentɪn(ə)] *n

1. часовой

to place /to station/ [to appoint] a sentinel - поставить [назначить] часового
to stand sentinel over smth. - стоять на часах, охранять что-л

2. поэт. страж3. тех. предельный датчик2. ['sentɪn(ə)] *v

1. охранять, стоять на страже

2. ставить стражу

sentinel

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

sen-ti-nel [sentinel sentinels sentinelled sentineled sentinelling sentineling]BrE ['sentɪnəl] ^u NAmE ['sentɪnəl] ^u noun (literary)

a soldier whose job is to guard sth

Syn: ↑sentry: (figurative) a tall round tower standing sentinel over the river

• Large dark pines stood like sentinels guarding the wintry garden.

Word Origin:late 16th cent.: from French sentinelle, from Italian sentinella, of unknown origin.Example Bank:

• With its impressive stone tower standing sentinel over the valley, it looks much as it did in the 13th century.

sentinel

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

sen-ti-nel /'sentɪnəl/ BrE ^u AmE ^u noun [countable] old-fashioned[Date: 1500-1600; Language: French; Origin: sentinelle, from Old Italian sentinella, from sentina 'keeping watch', from sentire, from Latin; ⇒ ↑sentient]

a sentry

sentinel

Freakuency Pack

12500 8401^{MCW}15000 11150^{COCA}RANGE: 11k SENTINEL 509

sentinel 329

sentinels 180

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

217 41831³¹⁰ *nn1*18 181856¹⁹ vv0