

charisma[kəˈrɪz|mə] n (pl -mata, -mas [-{kəˈrɪz}mɛz])

1. рел.
- 1) боговдохновение
- 2) божий дар; способность пророчествовать и творить чудеса, особ. исцелять
2. 1) харизма, притягательная сила (вождя, полководца); ореол charisma of a political leader - притягательность/ореол/ политического руководителя
- 2) обаяние, шарм
charisma of a popular actor - обаяние популярного актёра

charisma

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

cha-ris-ma [charisma charismata] BrE [kəˈrɪz|mə] ^u NAmE [kəˈrɪz|mə] ^u noun*uncountable

the powerful personal quality that some people have to attract and impress other people

- The President has great personal charisma.
- a lack of charisma

Word Origin:mid 17th cent. relating to a power or talent divinely conferred: via ecclesiastical Latin from Greek kharisma, from kharis 'favour, grace'.Example Bank:

- a woman who has charm and charisma
- He lacked the charisma and charm of his predecessor.
- She relaxed and her natural charisma started to shine through.

charisma

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

cha-ris-ma /kəˈrɪz|mə/ BrE ^u AmE ^u noun [uncountable]

[Date: 1600-1700; Language: Greek; Origin: 'favor, gift', from charizesthai 'to favor']

a natural ability to attract and interest other people and make them admire you:

- He lacks charisma.

charisma

Freakuency Pack

12500 8442^{MCW}15000 4885^{COCA}RANGE: 9k CHARISMA ³²⁶⁰charisma ¹¹⁹⁴charismas ⁰charismatic ²⁰⁵⁶charismatically ¹⁰

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

⁹⁷⁶ 18881¹¹⁹⁴ nn1