

evangelical

1. [i:væn'dʒelɪk(ə)] n
приверженец одной из евангелических церквей; протестант
2. [i:væn'dʒelɪk(ə)] a
 1. (обыкн. Evangelical) евангелический; протестантский
 2. евангельский
 3. фанатический пылкий в проповеди своей веры, убеждений и т. п.
the evangelical zeal of the movement's leaders - проповеднический пыл руководителей движения

evangelical

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

evan-gel-ic-al [evangelical evangelicals] adjective, noun BrE [i:vænɒdʒeɪkəl]

NAme [i:vænɒdʒeɪkəl]

adjective

1. of or belonging to a Christian group that emphasizes the authority of the Bible and the importance of people being saved through faith
 - They're evangelical Christians.
2. wanting very much to persuade people to accept your views and opinions
 - He delivered his speech with evangelical fervour

Word Origin:

mid 16th cent.: via ecclesiastical Latin from ecclesiastical Greek euangelikos, from euangelos 'bringing good news', from eu- 'well' + angelein 'announce'.

Culture:

There are many different evangelical Churches in the US, where they greatly increased in the 1970s.

Derived Word ↑evangelicalism

noun

a member of the ↑evangelical branch of the Christian Church

Word Origin:

mid 16th cent.: via ecclesiastical Latin from ecclesiastical Greek euangelikos, from euangelos 'bringing good news', from eu- 'well' + angelein 'announce'.

evangelical

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

evan-gel-i-cal /i:vænɒdʒeɪkəl/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ adjective

1. evangelical Christians believe that they should persuade as many people as possible to become Christians:
 - the evangelical church
 - evangelical missionaries
2. very eager to persuade people to accept your ideas and beliefs:
 - He spoke with evangelical fervour.

evangelical

Freakuency Pack

12500 8469^{MCW}

15000 3796^{COCA}

RANGE: 10k EVANGELICAL ⁵⁴⁷⁸

evangelical ³⁶⁶³

evangelically ¹¹

evangelicalism ²⁰⁶

evangelicals ¹⁵⁹⁸

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1513 8833³⁶⁶³ jj