

credentialscre-den-tials [kri'denʃəlz] BrE [krə'denʃɪz] NAmE [krə'denʃɪz] *noun plural1. ~ (as/for sth) the qualities, training or experience that make you suitable to do sth

- She has impeccable credentials as a researcher.
- He has all the credentials for the job.
- She will first have to establish her leadership credentials.

2. documents such as letters that prove that you are who you claim to be, and can therefore be trusted

- to examine sb's credentials

Example Bank:

- City established their championship credentials with a 6–0 win.
- First, he had to establish his credentials as a researcher.
- He has perfect credentials to make an officer.
- Nearly 200 reporters applied for press credentials to cover the case.
- Rush questioned his credentials to lead the group.
- She always had the right credentials to make it in the world of country music.
- She had excellent credentials for the job.
- They had already established their credentials as architects with office buildings.
- Check the credentials of any unknown caller.
- The ambassador presented his diplomatic credentials.

credentials

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

cre-den-tials /kri'denʃəlz/ BrE AmE *noun [plural]1. someone's education, achievements, experience etc that prove they have the ability to do somethingcredentials for/as

- She had excellent credentials for the job.
- There are doubts over his credentials as a future Prime Minister.
- He spent the first part of the interview trying to establish his credentials as a financial expert.
- Her academic credentials include an MA and a PhD.

2. a letter or other document which proves your good character or your right to have a particular position:

- The commissioner presented his credentials to the State Department.

credentials

Frequency Pack

12500 8570^{MCW}15000 4708^{COCA}RANGE: 9k CREDENTIALS ³⁵⁶¹credentials ²⁹⁶⁶credential ⁵⁹⁵

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

2394 10262²⁹⁶⁶ nn2