cap-tion [caption captions captioned captioning] noun, verb BrE ['kæpʃn]

NAme ['kæpʃn]

noun

words that are printed underneath a picture, ↑cartoon, etc. that explain or describe it

see also ↑closed-captioned

Word Origin:

late Middle English (in the sense 'seizing, capture'): from Latin captio(n-), from capere 'take, seize'. Early senses 'arrest' and 'warrant for arrest' gave rise to 'statement of where, when, and by whose authority a warrant was issued' (late 17th cent.): this was usually attached to a legal document, hence the sense 'heading or accompanying wording' (late 18th cent.).

verb usually passive ~ sth

to write a ↑caption for a picture, photograph, etc

- The cartoon was captioned 'The English abroad'.
