

division[di'vɪz(ə)n] n

1. деление; разделение division of labour - разделение труда division of political power - разделение политической власти
2. распределение; раздача
3. мат. деление simple /exact/ division - деление без остатка restoring division - деление с восстановлением (остатка) abridged /short-cut/ division - сокращённое деление division mark - знак деления
4. разногласия, расхождение во мнениях; раздоры to cause /to stir up/ divisions - сеять рознь to bring division into a family - посеять рознь в семье
5. 1) голосование on a division - при голосовании to come to a division - голосовать, прибегать к голосованию to challenge a division - потребовать голосования, добиться голосования (по какому-л. вопросу)
without a division - не ставя вопрос на голосование; без голосования
- 2) разделение голосов во время голосования
6. 1) классификация, деление
- 2) зоол. отдел (классификационная единица)
- 3) бот. тип
- 4) спорт. место
top division - первое место
7. 1) категория, подразделение; отдел, раздел
- 2) сектор
- 3) тех. отсек
8. 1) перегородка, барьер
- 2) межа, граница
9. округ
administrative [parliamentary] division - административный [избирательный] округ
10. амер. отделение (несколько факультетов) division of modern languages - отделение новых языков 11. 1) юр. отделение, отдел, контора
King's Bench Division - отделение королевской скамьи Высокого суда (в Англии)
Divorce Division - отдел по делам о разводах Высокого суда (в Англии)
Probate Division - отделение по наследственным делам Высокого суда (в Англии)
- 2) спец. отдел
division of laser fusion - отдел лазерного синтеза division of technical information extension - отдел по распространению технической информации 12. спец.
- 1) деление (шкалы)
- 2) цена деления
13. воен. дивизия armoured division - бронетанковая дивизия division engineer - дивизионный инженер division headquarters - штаб дивизии
14. мор. дивизион
15. тех. измельчение, диспергирование
◇ the first [the second, the third] division - мягкий [усиленный, строгий] тюремный режим

division

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

div·i·sion [division divisions] BrE [di'vɪzɪn] ^m NAmE [di'vɪzɪn] ^m noun*INTO SEPARATE PARTS

1. uncountable, singular the process or result of dividing into separate parts; the process or result of dividing sth or sharing it out
 - cell division
 - ~ of sth a fair division of time and resources
 - ~ of sth between A and B the division of labour between the sexes
 - ~ (of sth) into sth the division of the population into age groups
 - a distinction which cuts right across the familiar division into arts and sciences

MATHEMATICS

2. uncountable the process of dividing one number by another

- the division sign (÷)

compare ↑multiplication

see also ↑long division

DISAGREEMENT/DIFFERENCE

3. countable, uncountable a disagreement or difference in opinion, way of life, etc, especially between members of a society or an organization

- ~ (in/within sth) There are deep divisions in the party over the war.
- the work of healing the divisions within society
- ~ (between A and B) divisions between rich and poor
- social/class divisions

PART OF ORGANIZATION

4. countable + singular or plural verb (abbr. Div.) a large and important unit or section of an organization

- the company's sales division

IN SPORT

5. countable + singular or plural verb (abbr. Div.) (in Britain) one of the group of teams that a sport competition is divided into, especially in football (↑ soccer)

- the first division/division one
- a first-division team

PART OF ARMY

6. countable + singular or plural verb (abbr. Div.) a unit of an army, consisting of several ↑ brigades or ↑ regiments

- the Guards Armoured Division

BORDER

7. countable a line that divides sth

- A hedge forms the division between their land and ours.

IN PARLIAMENT

8. countable (technical) the separation of members of the British parliament into groups to vote for or against sth

- The Bill was read without a division.

Word Origin:

late Middle English: from Old French devisiun, from Latin divisio(n-), from the verb dividere 'force apart, remove'.

Thesaurus:

division noun

1. U, sing.

- a fair division of the money separation • • split • • partition • • segregation •

division/separation/segregation from sb/sth

(a) division/separation/split/segregation between sth and sth else

(a) division/separation/split/segregation into parts

(a) clear division/separation/split

2. C, U

- We must heal the divisions within society.

rift • • alienation • • distance • | informal split • | formal schism • • disunity • • estrangement •

(a) division/rift/distance/split/schism/disunity/estrangement between people or groups

(a) division/rift/split/schism/disunity within a group

(a) split/distance/alienation/estrangement from sb

(a/an) deep/serious/internal/ideological division/split/rift heal divisions/a split/a rift

Example Bank:

- He's now playing football in the higher divisions.
- His will detailed his assets and gave instructions for their division among his children.
- In selling there is a broad division into direct and indirect methods.
- She works in the marketing division.
- Sometimes there is no simple division between good and evil.
- The Ravens finished 10–6 and won the division.
- The company recently launched its publishing division.
- The prime minister's speech will attempt to heal divisions within his party.
- The speech is intended to heal divisions within the party.
- The team have a three game division lead.
- The team won its tenth consecutive division title.
- There are reports of serious divisions among senior party members.
- There are sharp divisions within the party over the privatization of the railways.
- There are sharp divisions within the party over the proposals.
- They compete in the senior division of the chess league.
- You can make a rough division of his music into 'light' and 'serious'.

- an unequal division of the cake
- an unfair division of labour
- division by three
- division within the government
- factional divisions within the party
- faith and love which transcends every division and prejudice
- hierarchical division between 'workers' and 'management'
- the administrative divisions of the Roman Empire
- the conventional division of language into grammar and vocabulary
- the division of the money between the members
- Divisions between rich and poor seem to grow ever wider.
- In many traditional societies, the division of labour between the sexes is strict.
- The commander of the fourth infantry division defied orders.
- The company's sales division is going to be restructured.
- The organism begins as a single cell and grows by cell division.
- The party was weakened by division between various factions.
- There are deep divisions in the party over European monetary union.
- This division of the population into age groups is obviously convenient for marketing purposes.
- This is a distinction which cuts right across the familiar division into arts and sciences.
- We need to ensure a fair division of time and resources.
- We need to work together to heal the divisions within society.

division

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

di vi ʒ ən S3 W1 /də'vɪʒən, dɪ'vɪʒən/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ noun

[Word Family: noun: ↑divide, ↑division, ↑subdivision; adjective: ↑divided ≠ ↑undivided, ↑divisible ≠ ↑indivisible, ↑divisive; verb: ↑divide, ↑subdivide]

[Date: 1300-1400; Language: Old French; Origin: Latin divisio, from dividere ⇒ ↑divide¹]

1. SEPARATING [uncountable and countable] the act of separating something into two or more different parts, or the way these parts are separated or shared division of something between/among/into something

- the division of words into syllables
- the traditional division of labour (=the way that particular tasks are shared) between husband and wife

2. DISAGREEMENT [uncountable and countable] disagreement among the members of a group that makes them form smaller opposing groups division between/within/among something

- Can he heal the deep divisions among Republican ranks?

racial/class/gender etc division

- The old class divisions had begun to break down.
- The Army was plagued by internal divisions.

3. MATHEMATICS [uncountable] the process of finding out how many times one number is contained in another ⇒ multiplication, long division

4. PART OF AN ORGANIZATION [countable] a group that does a particular job within a large organization:

- the Computer Services Division

5. MILITARY [countable] a large military group:

- a tank division

6. SPORT [countable] one of the groups of teams that a sports competition is divided into, often based on the number of games they have won the Premier/First/Second/Third/Fourth Division

- a second-division club

7. IN PARLIAMENT [countable] a process in which members of the British parliament vote for something by dividing into groups:

- MPs forced a division on the bill.
- Some members supported the opposition in the division lobbies (=the rooms where the vote takes place).

division

Freakuency Pack

12500 871 ^{MCW}

15000 983 ^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k DIVIDE 47579

divide 7337

divided 13529 divides 1451

dividing 2505

undivided 334

division 16544

divisions 5419

divider 307

dividers 153

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

10270 2580¹⁶⁵²⁵ nn1
14 214315¹⁴ nnu
4 399369⁵ np1
