

windy1. ['wɪndɪ] n сл.

- болтун, враль
- выдумка, враки
- обман, розыгрыш

2. ['wɪndɪ] a

- ветренный
windy day - ветренный день
- обдуваемый ветром
windy plain - равнина, открытая ветрам
- болтливый многоречивый
windy politician - велеречивый политикан
- пустой, бессодержательный windy eloquence /rhetoric/ - пустословие windy logic - шаткая логика
- разг.* испуганный, боязливый
- ирон.* бурный, неистовый windy passion - бурная страсть windy anger - взрыв гнева
- шотл. разг.* спесивый
- 1) вызывающий газы (в кишечнике)
windy food - пища, от которой пучит живот
- 2) страдающий от газов
- горн.* несработавший
windy shot - невзорвавшийся заряд ◇ Windy City - амер. «Город ветров» (Чикаго) on the windy side - вне досягаемости to keep on the windy side of the law - не попадаться в руки /держаться подальше от/ полиции, властей и т. п.

windy

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

windy ['wɪndɪ windier windiest] BrE ['wɪndɪ] <sup>m</sup> NAmE ['wɪndɪ] <sup>m</sup> adjective

(wind-ier, windi-est)

1. (of weather, etc.) with a lot of wind

- a windy day
- It's too windy to go out in the boat.

Opp: ↑windless

2. (of a place) getting a lot of wind

- windy hills

3. (informal, disapproving) (of speech) involving speaking for longer than necessary and in a way that is complicated and not clear

Word Origin:

Old English windig (see ↑wind 1, ↑-y).

Example Bank:

- It's getting very windy.
- a wet and windy day

windy

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

windy S3 /'wɪndɪ/ BrE <sup>m</sup> AmE <sup>m</sup> (comparative windier, superlative windiest) adjective

1. if it is windy, there is a lot of wind:

- It's too windy for a picnic.
- a cold, windy day
- a windy hillside

2. windy talk is full of words that sound impressive but do not mean much:

- politicians' windy generalizations
- ...

THESAURUS

- windy if it is windy, there is a lot of wind: It's too windy for a picnic. | a windy day in October
- blustery blustery weather is very windy, with sudden strong winds: a cold and blustery day
- breezy if the weather is breezy, the wind blows fairly strongly: a sunny but breezy day in springtime
- blowy informal windy: It's a bit blowy out there. | The day was grey and cold and blowy.
- stormy if the weather is stormy, there are strong winds, heavy rain, and dark clouds: The sky was starting to look stormy. | a period of stormy weather
- windswept a windswept place is often windy because there are not many trees or buildings to protect it: The beach was cold and windswept. | Thousands of the birds live on the windswept islands off the north coast of Scotland.

windy

Freakuency Pack

12500 874 <sup>MCW</sup>15000 1003 <sup>COCA</sup>

RANGE: 1k WIND 46649

wind 36104

winded 317

winds 8268

windy 1960

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1423 13671<sup>1960</sup> jj

---