

glee

[gli:] n

1. веселье; ликование
full of glee - полон веселья
she danced with glee when she saw the new toys - когда она увидела новые игрушки, она заплясала от радости
2. песня (для нескольких голосов, обыкн. мужских, исполняемая без аккомпанемента)

glee

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

glee [glee glees] BrE [gli:][ⓘ] NAmE [gli:][ⓘ] noun uncountable

a feeling of happiness, usually because sth good has happened to you, or sth bad has happened to sb else

Syn: ↑delight

- He rubbed his hands in glee as he thought of all the money he would make.
- She couldn't disguise her glee at their embarrassment.

Word Origin:

Old English glēo 'entertainment, music, fun', of Germanic origin.

Example Bank:

- She couldn't disguise her glee at their embarrassment.

glee

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

glee /gli/ BrE[ⓘ] AmE[ⓘ] noun

[Language: Old English; Origin: gleo 'entertainment, music']

[uncountable] a feeling of satisfaction and excitement, often because something bad has happened to someone else SYN delight:

Manufacturers are rubbing their hands with glee as they prepare to cash in.

glee

Freakuency Pack

12500 8846^{MCW}

15000 6238^{COCA}

RANGE: 9k GLEE¹⁹⁹²

glee¹⁰⁰⁷

glees⁰

gleeful³⁴²

gleefulness⁵

gleefully⁶³⁸

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

⁸⁶⁵20989¹⁰⁰⁷ nn1