

fugitive

1. [ˈfjuːdʒɪtɪv] n

- 1) беглец
a fugitive from justice - лицо, скрывающееся от правосудия
- 2) беженец; изгнанник
a fugitive from the invaded areas - беженец из оккупированных (врагом) районов
- 2. странник; бродяга
- 3. нечто неуловимое
- 4. нестойкая краска

2. [ˈfjuːdʒɪtɪv] a

- 1) беглый
fugitive soldier [slave] - беглый солдат [невольник] fugitive debtor - сбежавший должник
- 2) вынужденный покинуть свой дом; беженский, перемещённый
- 2. 1) мимолётный, преходящий fugitive idea /thought/ - мимолётная мысль
- 2) непрочный, нестойкий fugitive colours - непрочные краски
- 3) летучий, фугитивный
- 3. недолговечный, имеющий преходящий интерес fugitive verse - стихотворение-однодневка the value of most newspaper writing is only fugitive - интерес к большинству газетных статей быстро улетучивается
- 4. странствующий, бродячий fugitive theatrical company - гастролирующий театр

fugitive

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

fu-gi-tive [fugitive fugitives] noun, adjective BrE [ˈfjuːdʒɪtɪv] AmE [ˈfjuːdʒɪtɪv]

noun ~ (from sb/sth)

a person who has escaped or is running away from somewhere and is trying to avoid being caught

- a fugitive from justice

Word Origin:

late Middle English: from Old French fugitif, -ive, from Latin fugitivus, from fugere 'flee' .

Example Bank:

- a sanctuary where fugitives from justice could shelter
- one of the most wanted fugitives sought by the Italian police adjective only before noun

- 1. trying to avoid being caught
• a fugitive criminal
- 2. (literary) lasting only for a very short time

Syn: †fleeting

- a fugitive idea/thought

Word Origin:

late Middle English: from Old French fugitif, -ive, from Latin fugitivus, from fugere 'flee' .

fugitive

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. fu gi tive ¹ /ˈfjuːdʒɪtɪv/ BrE ¹ AmE ¹ noun [countable] someone who is trying to avoid being caught by the police fugitive from a fugitive from US justice

II. fugitive ² BrE ² AmE ² adjective [only before noun]

[Date: 1300-1400; Language: French; Origin: fugitif, from Latin fugere 'to run away']

- 1. trying to avoid being caught by the police
- 2. literary lasting for a very short time:
rare and fugitive visits

fugitive

Freakuency Pack

12500 9013^{MCW}
15000 6227^{COCA} RANGE: 11k FUGITIVE ¹⁹⁹⁶
fugitive 1490
fugitives 506

