

relish

1. ['reliʃ] n
- удовольствие, наслаждение; вкус, склонность (к чему-л.)
to eat with great relish - есть с аппетитом to have a relish for smth. - иметь склонность к чему-л.
he has no relish for hard studies - упорные занятия ему не по вкусу
he used to tell the story with relish - он с увлечением рассказывал эту историю
 - приятный вкус, запах relish of garlic - привкус чеснока to give relish to a dish - приправить блюдо
to add relish to food - придавать пикантность блюду
 - 1) (острая) приправа, острый гарнир из маринованных овощей
beet relish - маринованная свёкла
 - 2) закуска
 - привлекательность
the relish of novelty - прелесть новизны to lose relish - терять (свою) прелесть /привлекательность/
 - 1) чуточка, толика, малое количество
a relish of salt - крупица соли
 - образчик, образец
a relish of his art - образец его искусства ◇ hunger is the best relish - ≅ голод - лучший повар /лучшая приправа/

2. ['reliʃ] v

- получать, находить удовольствие; наслаждаться; смаковать
he relished the simple family life - он наслаждался тихой семейной жизнью
he relished his breakfast - он смаковал свой завтрак
I do not relish the prospect - меня не прельщает эта перспектива
- служить приправой, придавать приятный вкус, остроту excellent coffee relished with hot cakes - прекрасный кофе, особенно вкусный с горячими лепёшками
- (of) иметь вкус, отзываться (чем-л.)
those words relish of humour - в этих словах чувствуется юмор

relish
rel·ish [relish relishes relished relishing] verb, noun BrE ['reliʃ] ^m NAmE ['reliʃ]

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

verb
to get great pleasure from sth; to want very much to do or have sth

- Syn: ↑enjoy
- ~ sth to relish a fight/challenge/debate
 - to relish the idea/thought of sth
 - I don't relish the prospect of getting up early tomorrow.
 - ~ (sb/sth) doing sth Nobody relishes cleaning the oven.

Verb forms:

verb forms
present simple
I / you / we /they	relish
	BrE / 'reliʃ/
	NAmE / 'reliʃ/
he / she /it	relishes
	BrE / 'reliʃɪz/
	NAmE / 'reliʃɪz/
past simple, past participle	relished
	BrE / 'reliʃt/
	NAmE / 'reliʃt/
-ing form	relishing
	BrE / 'reliʃɪŋ/
	NAmE / 'reliʃɪŋ/

Word Origin:
Middle English: alteration of obsolete reles, from Old French reles 'remainder', from relaisser 'to release'. The early noun sense was 'odour, taste' giving rise to 'appetizing flavour, piquant taste' (mid 17th cent.), and hence sense 2 (late 18th cent.).

- Example Bank:
- He did not particularly relish the prospect of a meeting with his boss.
 - She secretly relished the thought of being alone with him.
 - He was relishing his moment of glory.
 - I always relish a good debate.
 - I don't relish the prospect of getting up early tomorrow.
 - to relish the idea/thought of sth

noun
1. uncountable great enjoyment or pleasure

• She savoured the moment with obvious relish .

2. uncountable, countable a cold thick spicy sauce made from fruit and vegetables that have been boiled, that is served with meat, cheese, etc.

Word Origin:

Middle English: alteration of obsolete reles, from Old French reles 'remainder' , from relaisser 'to release' . The early noun sense was 'odour, taste' giving rise to 'appetizing flavour, piquant taste' (mid 17th cent.), and hence sense 2 (late 18th cent.).

relish

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. relish¹ /'relɪʃ/ BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ verb [transitive] to enjoy an experience or the thought of something that is going to happen relish the prospect/thought/idea

" I don't relish the thought of you walking home alone.

relish the chance/opportunity

" He relishes the chance to play Hamlet.

II. relish² BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ noun

[Date: 1500-1600; Language: Old French; Origin: reles 'something left behind', from relessier; ⇨ ↑release¹]

1. [uncountable] great enjoyment of something with relish

" I ate with great relish, enjoying every bite.

2. [uncountable and countable] a thick spicy sauce made from fruits or vegetables, and usually eaten with meat:

" a hot dog with mustard and relish

relish

Freakuency Pack

12500 9107^{MCW}

15000 5095^{COCA}

RANGE: 8k RELISH ²⁹⁹³

relish 1800

relishes 382

relished 507

relishing 304

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

636 21916⁹⁴¹ nn1

491 31813⁵⁰² vvi

341 38632³⁵⁷ vv0