

fraught[frɔ:t] a

- predic (with) полный, преисполненный, чреватый fraught with danger - чреватый опасностью
a heart fraught with sorrow - сердце, преисполненное печали fraught with meaning - многозначительный
- predic arch., поэт. нагруженный
an argosy fraught with precious wares - корабль, груженный дорогими товарами
- разг. озабоченный, удрученный to look very fraught - иметь очень озабоченный вид

fraught

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

fraught BrE [frɔ:t] NAmE [frɔ:t] adjective

- ~ with sth filled with sth unpleasant
• a situation fraught with danger/difficulty/problems
- (especially BrE) causing or feeling worry and anxiety

Syn: †tense

- She looked/sounded fraught.
- There was a fraught silence.
- The atmosphere remained fraught.
- Things are as fraught as ever in the office.

Word Origin:

[fraught] late Middle English, laden, equipped, past participle of obsolete fraught 'load with cargo', from Middle Dutch vrachten, from vracht 'ship's cargo'. Compare with †freight.

Example Bank:

- She looked fraught

fraught

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

fraught /frɔ:t/ BrE AmE adjective

[Date: 1300-1400; Origin: Past participle of fraught 'to load, fill' (14-19 centuries), from Middle Dutch vracht 'load']

- fraught with problems/difficulties/danger etc full of problems etc:
" Their marriage has been fraught with difficulties.
- full of anxiety or worry SYN tense:
" a fraught atmosphere
" a fraught situation
" Julie sounded rather fraught.

fraught

Freakuency Pack

12500 9229^{MCW}15000 8103^{COCA}RANGE: 7k FRAUGHT¹¹⁴¹fraught¹¹⁴¹

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1090 19439¹¹⁴¹ jj