

ardent['ɑ:d(ə)nt] a

1. горячий, пылкий, страстный, ревностный

ardent love - пылкая /страстная/ любовь

ardent hate [longing] - жгучая ненависть [-ее желание]

ardent champion [admirer] - страстный борец [поклонник]

ardent follower [supporter] - ревностный последователь [сторонник]

to be an ardent student of ancient history - с увлечением изучать историю Древнего мира

2. пылающий, обжигающий

ardent heat - палящий зной

ardent eyes - пылающий взор

3. мор. рыскливый (о судне)

ardent

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

ar·dent BrE ['ɑːdn̩t̩] NAmE ['ɑːrdn̩t̩] adjective usually before noun very enthusiastic and showing strong feelings about sth/sb

Syn: ↑passionate

• an ardent supporter of European unity

Derived Word ↑ardentlyWord Origin:[ardent ardently] Middle English: from Old French ardant from Latin ardens, ardent-, from ardere 'to burn'.Example Bank:

• She's an ardent supporter of European unity.

ardent

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

ar·dent /'ɑːdn̩t̩/ BrE AmE adjective [usually before noun][Date: 1300-1400; Language: Old French; Origin: Latin, present participle of ardere 'to burn']

1. showing strong positive feelings about an activity and determination to succeed at it:

" an ardent supporter of free trade

2. literary showing strong feelings of love:

" an ardent lover

—ardently *adverbardent

Freakuency Pack

12500 9397^{MCW}15000 7046^{COCA}RANGE: 10k ARDENT ¹⁵⁵⁷ardent ¹³⁰⁷ardently ²⁵⁰

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1194 17818¹³⁰⁷ jj