

getawayget-away [getaway getaways] BrE ['getəweɪ] ^u NAmE ['getəweɪ] ^u noun

usually singular

1. an escape from a difficult situation, especially after committing a crime
 - to make a quick getaway
 - a getaway car
2. (informal) a short holiday/vacation; a place that is suitable for a holiday/vacation
 - a romantic weekend getaway in New York
 - the popular island getaway of Penang

Example Bank:

- We'll have to make a quick getaway.
- a shortlist of things that most people look for when planning their summer getaway

getaway

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

get a way /'getəweɪ/ BrE ^u AmE ^u noun [countable]

1. an escape from a place or unpleasant situation, especially after committing a crime:
 - The gunmen made a getaway on foot.
- getaway car/vehicle/van (=a car etc used by criminals to escape after a crime)*
2. especially American English a short holiday away from home, or a place where people go for a short holiday:
 - Big Bear Lake is a popular weekend getaway.

getaway

Freakuency Pack

12500 9472^{MCW}15000 7256^{COCA}RANGE: 10k GETAWAY ¹⁴⁶⁸getaway ¹²¹⁷getaways ²⁵¹

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1011 18619¹²¹⁷ nn1