

fragrant['freɪɡrənt] a

1. ароматный благоухающий; благоуханный

fragrant with the delicate scents of spring - напоённый нежными ароматами весны

fragrant air - благоуханный воздух

2. восхитительный очаровательный

fragrant memories - сладостные воспоминания

fragrant

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

fra·grant BrE ['freɪɡrənt] <sup>m</sup> NAmE ['freɪɡrənt] <sup>m</sup> adjective

having a pleasant smell

- fragrant herbs/flowers/oils
- The air was fragrant with scents from the sea and the hills.
- Swallows swooped through the fragrant evening air.

Derived Word †fragrantlyWord Origin:[fragrant fragrantly] late Middle English: from French, or from Latin fragrant- 'smelling sweet', from the verb fragrareExample Bank:

- a garden full of wonderfully fragrant flowers
- The air was fragrant with the scents from the sea and the hills.
- fragrant herbs/flowers/oils

fragrant

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

fra·grant /'freɪɡrənt/ BrE <sup>m</sup> AmE <sup>m</sup> adjective[Date: 1400-1500; Language: Latin; Origin: present participle of fragrare 'to smell nice']

having a pleasant smell:

* fragrant flowers

—fragrantly *adverbfragrant

Freakuency Pack

12500 9509<sup>MCW</sup>15000 4290<sup>COCA</sup>RANGE: 10k FRAGRANT 4283

fragrant 1935

fragrantly 13

fragrance 1845

fragrances 490

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1482 13805<sup>1935</sup> jj