

heartland[ˈhɑːtlænd] n

- 1) центральная или важнейшая часть государства, края и т. п.; ≅ самое сердце страны
- 2) воен. глубокий тыл

heartland

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

heart·land [heartland heartlands] BrE [ˈhɑːtlænd] NAmE [ˈhɑːrtlænd]noun (also heartlands plural)

1. the central part of a country or an area
 - the great Russian heartlands
2. an area that is important for a particular activity or political party
 - the industrial heartland of Germany
 - the traditional Tory heartland of Britain's boardrooms

Example Bank:

- The party has lost seats in its traditional heartland of southern Thailand

heartland

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

heart·land /ˈhɑːtlænd/ BrE AmE noun [countable]

1. the heartland the central part of a country or area of land
2. the most important part of a country or area for a particular activity, or the part where a political group has most support:
 - the Democratic heartlands of the Deep South

heartland

Freakuency Pack

12500 9658^{MCW}15000 7339^{COCA}RANGE: 11k HEARTLAND 1429

heartland 1402

heartlands 27

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

1070 17044¹³⁹⁸ *nn1*4 443314⁴ nnu