

consonant1. ['kɒnsənənt] n

- 1) фон. согласный звук
- 2) буква, обозначающая согласный звук

2. ['kɒnsənənt] a

1. 1) (to, with) согласный
the opinion is consonant to law - это суждение не противоречит закону
- 2) (with) совместимый, сообразный your actions are not consonant with your principles - ваши действия несовместимы с вашими принципами position in the service consonant with one's rank - должность, соответствующая воинскому званию
2. созвучный; гармоничный consonant words [syllables] - созвучные слова [слоги]

consonant

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

con-son-ant [consonant consonants] noun, adjective BrE ['kɒnsənənt] ^ˈ NAmE['kɑːnsənənt] ^ˈnoun

1. (phonetics) a speech sound made by completely or partly stopping the flow of air being breathed out through the mouth
2. a letter of the alphabet that represents a consonant sound, for example 'b', 'c', 'd', 'f', etc.

compare ↑vowelWord Origin:Middle English (in the sense 'letter representing a consonant'): via Old French from Latin consonare 'sound together', from con- 'with' + sonare 'to sound' (from sonus 'sound').adjective ~ with sth (formal)

agreeing with or being the same as sth else

Word Origin:Middle English (in the sense 'letter representing a consonant'): via Old French from Latin consonare 'sound together', from con- 'with' + sonare 'to sound' (from sonus 'sound').consonant

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

I. con·so·nant¹ /'kɒnsənənt $ 'kɑːn- BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ noun [countable]

1. a speech sound made by partly or completely stopping the flow of air through your mouth ⇒ vowel
2. a letter that represents a consonant sound. The letters 'a', 'e', 'i', 'o', 'u', and sometimes 'y' represent vowels, and all the other letters are consonants.

II. consonant² BrE ^ˈ AmE ^ˈ adjective[Date: 1300-1400; Language: Old French; Origin: Latin, present participle of consonare 'to sound together, agree', from com- (⇒ COM-) + sonare 'to sound']

1. be consonant with something formal to match or exist well with something else:
This policy is scarcely consonant with the government's declared aims.
2. technical relating to a combination of musical notes that sounds pleasant OPP dissonant
—consonance noun [uncountable]

consonant

Freakuency Pack

12500 9879^{MCW}15000 9374^{COCA}RANGE: 10k CONSONANT⁸⁰⁹consonant ⁴⁵⁸consonants ³³⁹consonantly ⁰consonantal ¹²

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

217 45154²⁶⁹ *jj*139 54683¹⁸⁹ nn1