

collection[kəˈlekʃ(ə)n] n

1. 1) собрание
collection of stories - собрание /сборник/ рассказов
- 2) собрание
collection of letters - выемка писем (из почтового ящика) collection of facts [of evidence] - собрание данных [свидетельских показаний]
2. 1) сбор денежных пожертвований (особ. на собраниях или в церкви) to make [to take up] a collection - произвести сбор пожертвований [см. тж. 3]
- 2) денежные пожертвования collections for refugees - денежные пожертвования в пользу беженцев
- 3) денежный сбор
collection of taxes - взыскание налогов
- 4) ком. инкассо
3. 1) коллекция collection of books [plants, stamps] - коллекция книг [растений, марок] to make a collection - составить коллекцию [см. тж. 2, 1)]
- 2) совокупность, набор
- 3) коллекция новых моделей одежды (одного модельера или одной фирмы для показа заказчикам)
4. скопление; сборище collection of people - толпа людей collection of rubbish - куча хлама /мусора/
5. аккумуляция, аккумулятивное solar-energy collection system - система аккумуляции солнечной энергии
6. pl унив. проф. семестровые экзамены (в Оксфорде и некоторых других университетах)
7. информ. (документальный) фонд

collection

Oxford Advanced Learners Dictionary 8th Ed.

col·lec·tion [collection collections] BrE [kəˈlekʃn] [ⓘ] NAmE [kəˈlekʃn] [ⓘ] noun*GROUP OF OBJECTS/PEOPLE

1. countable a group of objects, often of the same sort, that have been collected
 - a stamp/coin, etc. collection
 - The painting comes from his private collection.
2. countable a group of objects or people
 - There was a collection of books and shoes on the floor.
 - There is always a strange collection of runners in the London Marathon.

TAKING AWAY/BRINGING TOGETHER

3. countable, uncountable an act of taking sth away from a place; an act of bringing things together into one place
 - refuse/garbage collection
 - The last collection from this postbox is at 5.15.
 - Your suit will be ready for collection on Tuesday.
 - The first stage in research is data collection.

compare ↑pickupPOEMS/STORIES/MUSIC

4. countable a group of poems, stories or pieces of music published together as one book or disc
 - a collection of stories by women writers
 - a collection of favourite Christmas music

MONEY

5. countable an act of collecting money to help a charity or during a church service; the money collected
 - a house-to-house collection for Cancer Research
 - The total collection last week amounted to £250.

NEW CLOTHES

6. countable a range of new clothes or items for the home that are designed, made and offered for sale, often for a particular season
 - Armani's stunning new autumn collection

Word Origin:late Middle English: via Old French from Latin collectio(n-), from colligere 'gather together', from col- 'together' + legere 'choose or collect'.Collocations:Clothes and fashionClothes*

be wearing a new outfit/bright colours/fancy dress/fur/uniform be (dressed) in black/red/jeans and a T-shirt/your best suit/leather/silk/rags (= very old torn clothes) be dressed for work/school/dinner/a special occasion be dressed as a man/woman/clown/pirate wear /dress in casual/designer/second-hand clothes wear jewellery/(especially US) jewelry/accessories/a watch/glasses/contact lenses/perfume have a cowboy hat/red dress/blue suit on put on/take off your clothes/coat/shoes/helmet pull on/pull off your coat/gloves/socks change into/get changed into a pair of jeans/your pyjamas/(especially US) your pajamas

Appearance

change/enhance/improve your appearance create/get/have/give sth a new/contemporary/retro look brush/comb/shampoo/wash/blow-dry your hair have/get a haircut/your hair cut/a new hairstyle have/get a piercing/your nose pierced have/get a tattoo/a tattoo done (on your arm)/a tattoo removed have/get a makeover/cosmetic surgery use/wear/apply/put on make-up/cosmetics

Fashion

follow/keep up with (the) fashion/the latest fashions spend/waste money on designer clothes be fashionably/stylishly/well dressed have good/great/terrible/awful taste in clothes update/revamp your wardrobe be in/come into/go out of fashion be (back/very much) in vogue create a style/trend/vogue for sth organize /put on a fashion show show/unveil a designer's spring/summer collection sashay/strut down the catwalk/(NAmE also) runway be on/do a photo/fashion shoot

Example Bank:

- A collection will be taken at the end of the service.
- A glass-fronted cabinet displayed a collection of china figurines.
- He built up his collection over a period of ten years.
- He donated his art collection to the Guggenheim Museum.
- Historians frequently ask to consult the collection.
- I was allowed to view his family collection of miniatures.
- Running through the tale is a motley collection of loners looking for love.
- She had the task of cataloguing the library and organizing the collection of rare manuscripts.
- She had the task of organizing the collection of rare manuscripts.
- She has recently launched her new ready-to-wear collection.
- She made a collection of Roman coins and medals.
- She needed only one more stamp to complete her collection.
- The band has just released a collection of their greatest hits.
- The collection contains some 500 items.
- The collection covers all phases of Picasso's career.
- The collection has been added to over the years.
- The collection is rarely on view to the public.
- The collection is to go on public display for the first time next month.
- The council offers free collection of waste.
- The exhibition features a magnificent collection of bronze statues.
- The museum boasts a superb collection of medieval weapons.
- The museum has a large reserve collection in storage, which members of the public rarely get to see.
- The museum's collection is growing all the time.
- The museum's collection spans 5 000 years of art history.
- The permanent collection is displayed on the first floor, whilst the ground floor houses temporary exhibitions.
- There are some difficulties with the collection of reliable data.
- They will arrange collection of the chairs.
- We have a small but representative collection of Brazilian art.
- We offer free collection of waste.
- We will have a collection for charity at the end of the concert.
- Your car is awaiting collection at our garage.
- a historical archive collection of 20 000 documents
- a lack of collection points for waste paper
- a new building to house the national collection of arms and armour
- a new painting to add to their collection
- a refuse collection service
- a research collection available for study by archaeologists

- a street collection for famine relief
- a valuable collection of antique porcelain
- different methods of data collection
- major collections dating from the 11th to the 19th century
- the church collection plate
- the first designer to unveil his collection for the spring season
- the largest private art collection in the world
- the need for more efficient tax collection
- the systematic collection of data
- to assemble and analyse a representative collection of data
- to publish a collection of scholarly essays
- A somewhat strange collection of people had gathered in front of the building.
- They appeared to be a motley collection of college students.
- a house-to-house collection for Cancer Relief
- rubbish/garbage collection

collection

Longman DOCE 5th Ed. (En-En)

col·lec·tion S2 W1 /kə'lekʃən/ BrE " AmE " noun

[Word Family: noun: ↑collection, ↑collector, ↑collective, ↑collectable, collectible, ↑collectivism, ↑collectivization; adjective: ↑collected, ↑collective, ↑collectable, collectible, ↑collectivist; verb: ↑collect, ↑collectivize; adverb: ↑collectively]

1. SET/GROUP [countable]

a) a set of similar things that are kept or brought together because they are attractive or interesting ⇒ collect, collector:

- " a stamp collection
- " my record collection

collection of

- " a collection of Japanese vases

b) a group of objects together in the same place:

- " a collection of empty wine bottles on the back porch

2. MONEY [countable] the act of asking people to give you money for an organization that helps people, or during a church service, or the money collected in this way ⇒ collect collection for

- " Every Christmas we have a collection for a local charity.
- " We'll be taking up a collection at the end of tonight's service.

3. RENT/DEBTS/TAXES [uncountable] the act of obtaining money that is owed to you ⇒ collect, collector:

- " a debt collection agency

4. BRINGING TOGETHER [uncountable] the act of bringing together things of the same type from different places to form a group ⇒ collect:

- " a computerized data collection system

5. TAKING SOMETHING AWAY [uncountable and countable] the act of taking something from a place ⇒ collect:

- " Garbage collections are made every Tuesday morning.
- " Please collect your purchases from the customer collection point.

6. FASHION [countable] the clothes designed by a fashion company for a particular season:

- " Donna Karen's new spring collection

7. BOOKS/MUSIC [countable] several stories, poems, pieces of music etc that are in one book or on one record

collection of

- " a new collection of Frost's poetry

8. PEOPLE [countable usually singular] a group of people, especially people you think are strange or unusual in some way

collection of

- " There was an interesting collection of people at the wedding.

• • •

COLLOCATIONS

■ ADJECTIVES/NOUN + collection

- an art collection the National Gallery's art collection
- a stamp/coin/book/glass etc collection an impressive Roman coin collection
- a CD/record/music collection Have you seen his CD collection?
- a photographic collection The museum's photographic collection dates from the nineteenth century.
- a museum collection The specimens are now part of a fine museum collection in London.
- a library collection Most lecturers are keen to build up library collections in their subjects.
- a private collection (=belonging to a person rather than a museum, gallery etc) Many of the paintings are now in private collections.
- a national collection France has many national art collections.
- a permanent collection The art gallery hosts exhibitions and a permanent collection.
- a large collection (also an extensive collection formal) The museum has an extensive collection of Greek statues.

■ verbs

- have a collection She has an extensive collection of Chinese vases.
- start a collection I think I might start a stamp collection.
- build up a collection He gradually built up a collection of plants from all over the world.
- acquire/assemble/amass a collection formal The two men amassed a remarkable collection of medieval manuscripts.

- something holds/houses a collection formal The museum holds a comprehensive collection of photographs from that period.
- a collection consistsof/contains something The collection consists of some 500 items.
- a collection includes something The collection includes paintings both in oils and in watercolours.

collection

Freakuency Pack

12500 995^{MCW}

15000 513^{COCA}

RANGE: 1k COLLECT ⁹⁴⁷¹¹

collect ⁹⁴⁴⁴

collects ¹⁷⁷²

collecting ⁶⁸⁵⁷

collected ¹³⁹⁵⁷

uncollected ¹⁰⁴

collective ¹¹¹⁴⁴

collectively ²⁶⁴⁵

collector ³²⁰⁸

collectors ⁴⁰⁶⁹

collection ³⁴²⁷²

collections ⁵⁹⁶⁰

collectable ²²

collectables ¹⁰

collectivist ²²⁸

collectivists ³⁸

collectivism ¹⁸⁹

collectivity ¹⁵¹

collectibles ⁶⁴¹

COCA 500k Unlemmatized

15790 1219³⁴²²⁴ nn1

30 135190³³ nnu

14 207301¹⁵ np1