Ladybird

Alice and her sister
were reading a book.

Alice saw a white rabbit.

“I’m late,” said the rabbit.

Alice went down a dark hole.

The rabbit ran away.

Alice ran after him.

Alice fell down and
down.

She saw a little door.

Alice saw a bottle.

She took a drink and got smaller and smaller.

“You are too big,” said the door.

Alice saw two men.

“Have you seen the white rabbit?” asked Alice.
The men did not answer.

Alice saw a little house.
She went in.

Alice found some biscuits.
She took a bite.

She got bigger and bigger.

Alice found a carrot.
She took a bite.

She got smaller and smaller.

She met a caterpillar.

The caterpillar turned into a butterfly and flew away.

Alice picked some mushrooms. She put them in her pocket.

Then Alice met a cat.

He showed Alice where
to find the white rabbit.

The March Hare and Mad Hatter were having tea.

There were lots of
teapots on the table.

In one of the teapots
there was a little mouse.

The white rabbit ran away again.

Alice followed the rabbit.

She met some playing cards.

The cards belonged to the Queen of Hearts.

Alice and the Queen
played a game.

The Queen lost the game.

She was very angry.

The Queen said that
Alice must die.

But Alice said, "No."

The cat sat on top of the Queen.

Alice laughed.

The Queen laughed too.

Alice took the mushrooms
out of her pocket.

She took a bite and got bigger and bigger.

Then she got smaller and smaller.

Alice ran away.

The King and Queen
and all the cards ran after Alice.

Then Alice woke up.

It was all a dream.

Read it yourself is a series of graded readers designed to give young children a confident and successful start to reading.

Level 2 is for children who are familiar with some simple words and can read short sentences. Each story in this level contains frequently repeated phrases, which help children to read more fluently.

About this book

The story is told in a way which uses regular repetition of the main words and phrases. This enables children to recognise the words more and more easily as they progress through the book. An adult can help them to do this by pointing at the first letter of each word, and sometimes making the sound that the letter makes. Children will probably need less help as the story progresses.

Beginner readers need plenty of help and encouragement.

Read it yourself Level 2

- Simple sentences and vocabulary
- Clear type
- Exciting illustrations closely matched to the story
- Engaging and entertaining characters
